What The Negro Wants The African American Intellectual Heritage

Harold Cruse

What The Negro Wants The African American Intellectual Heritage:

What the Negro Wants Rayford Whittingham Logan, 2001 Historian Rayford Logan was part of a circle of intellectuals at Howard University in the 1930s 1950s In 1944 he gathered together essays by 15 prominent black intellectuals The outspoken views expressed in the essays helped to set the agenda for the civil rights movement African Intellectual Heritage Abu Sharrow Abarry, 1996 Organized by major themes such as creation stories and resistance to oppression this collection gather works of imagination politics and history religion and culture from many societies and across recorded time Asante and Abarry marshal together ancient anonymous writers whose texts were originally written on stone and papyri and the well known public figures of more recent times whose spoken and written words have shaped the intellectual history of the diaspora Within this remarkably wide ranging volume are such sources as prayers and praise songs from ancient Kemet and Ethiopia along with African American spirituals political commentary from C L R James Malcolm X Mary McLeod Bethune and Joseph Nyerere stirring calls for social justice from David Walker Abdias Nacimento Franz Fanon and Martin Luther King Jr Featuring newly translated texts and documents published for the first time the volume also includes an African chronology a glossary and an extensive bibliography With this landmark book Asante and Abarry offer a major contribution to the ongoing debates on defining the African canon Author note Molefi Kete Asante is Professor and Chair of African American Studies at Temple University and author of several books including The Afrocentric Idea Temple and The Historical and Cultural Atlas of African Americans Abu S Abarry is Assistant Chair of African American Studies at Temple University

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001 Philosophy of African American Studies Stephen Ferguson, 2015-09-16 In this ground breaking book Stephen C Ferguson addresses a seminal question that is too often ignored What should be the philosophical basis for African American studies The volume explores philosophical issues and problems in their relationship to Black studies Ferguson shows that philosophy is not a sterile intellectual pursuit but a critical tool to gathering knowledge about the Black experience Cultural idealism in various forms has become enormously influential as a framework for Black studies Ferguson takes on the task of demonstrating how a Marxist philosophical perspective offers a productive and fruitful way of overcoming the limitations of idealism Focusing on the hugely popular Afrocentric school of thought this book s engaging discussion shows that the foundational arguments of cultural idealism are based on a series of analytical and historical misapprehensions In turn Ferguson argues for the centrality of the Black working class both men and women to Black Studies The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual Harold Cruse, 2005-06-30 Published in 1967 as the early triumphs of the Civil Rights movement yielded to increasing frustration and violence The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual electrified a generation of activists and intellectuals The product of a lifetime of struggle and reflection Cruse s book is a singular amalgam of cultural history passionate disputation and deeply considered analysis of the relationship between American blacks and American society Reviewing black intellectual life from the Harlem Renaissance through the 1960s Cruse discusses the legacy and offers memorably acid edged portraits of figures such as Paul Robeson Lorraine Hansberry and James Baldwin arguing that their work was marked by a failure to understand the specifically American character of racism in the United States This supplies the background to Cruse s controversial critique of both integrationism and black nationalism and to his claim that black Americans will only assume a just place within American life when they develop their own distinctive centers of cultural and economic influence For Cruse s most important accomplishment may well be his rejection of the clich s of the melting pot in favor of a vision of Americanness as an arena of necessary and vital contention an open and ongoing struggle

The Golden Age of Black Nationalism, 1850-1925 Wilson Jeremiah Moses,1988 Discusses the work of Crummell DuBois Douglass and Washington looks at the literature of Black nationalism and identifies trends and goals of Black Americans

The Paralysis of Analysis in African American Studies Stephen Ferguson II,2023-09-21 Stephen C Ferguson II provides a philosophical examination of Black popular culture for the first time From extensive discussion of the philosophy and political economy of Hip Hop music through to a developed exploration of the influence of the postmodernism poststructuralist ideology on African American studies he argues how postmodernism ideology plays a seminal role in justifying the relationship between corporate capitalism and Black popular culture Chapters cover topics such as cultural populism capitalism and Black liberation the philosophy of Hip Hop music and Harold Cruse s influence on the cultural turn in African American studies Ferguson combines case studies of past and contemporary Black cultural and intellectual productions with a Marxist ideological critique to provide a cutting edge reflection on the economic structure in which Black popular culture emerged He highlights the contradictions that are central to the juxtaposition of Black cultural artists as political participants in socioeconomic struggle and the political participants who perform the rigorous task of social criticism Adopting capitalism as an explanatory framework Ferguson investigates the relationship between postmodernism as social theory current manifestations of Black popular culture and the theoretical work of Black thinkers and scholars to demonstrate how African American studies have been shaped

Negotiating Diasporic Identity in Arab-Canadian Students Wisam Kh. Abdul-Jabbar,2019-05-09 This book framed through the notion of double consciousness brings postcolonial constructs to sociopolitical and pedagogical studies of youth that have yet to find serious traction in education Significantly this book contributes to a growing interest among educational and curriculum scholars in engaging the pedagogical role of literature in the theorization of an inclusive curriculum Therefore this study not only recognizes the potential of immigrant literature in provoking critical conversation on changes young people undergo in diaspora but also explores how the curriculum is informed by the diasporic condition itself as demonstrated by this negotiation of foreignness between the student and selected texts

Harold Cruse's The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual Reconsidered Jerry Gafio Watts,2004 A collection of essays looking back at the influence of The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual first published 35 years ago

Black Feminist Anthropology, 25th Anniversary Edition Irma McClaurin,2024-11-15 Black Feminist Anthropology

Theory Politics Praxis and Poetics is a groundbreaking collection that centers the imaginative intellectual perspectives voices and experiences of Black American feminist anthropologists Twenty five years ago as the Foreword states this book dared to put three words together in the title Black Feminist Anthropology that have not always kept company with each other and in the minds of many both in and outside of the academy they should remain separate Standing the test of time it is still a bold reimagining of anthropology and all social sciences as inclusive and decolonized while establishing a new Black feminist anthropology canon that decades later is too often taken for granted as normative Black Feminist Anthropology is filled with a message of theoretical possibilities that anyone who enters its pages will find healing life saving and an affirmation that Black women anthropologists have contributed much to the theory politics praxis and poetics of anthropology gender and women s studies masculinity studies queer studies the social sciences generally and any other discipline that seeks transformation from the inside out It is both an archive and a legacy for the next generation

Adopting the Song of Term: An Mental Symphony within What The Negro Wants The African American Intellectual Heritage

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the prepared term usually fade into the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. But, situated within the pages of What The Negro Wants The African American Intellectual Heritage an enchanting literary prize filled with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, that captivating masterpiece conducts readers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of the touching assessment, we shall investigate the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
