Reporting Palestine-Israel in British Newspapers Nadia R. Sirhan, 2021-08-28 This book examines the portrayal of the Palestinian Israeli conflict by looking at the language used in its reporting and how this can in turn influence public opinion The book explores how language use helps frame an event to elicit a particular interpretation from the reader and how this can be manipulated to introduce bias Sirhan begins the book by examining the history of the conflict and the many persistent myths that surround it She analyses how five events in the conflict two in which the Palestinians are victims two in which the Israelis are victims and Operation Cast Lead are reported in five British newspapers The Daily Mail The Guardian The Independent The Daily Telegraph and The Times By looking at these events across a range of newspapers the book investigates differences in the way that the media report each side before exploring what factors motivate these differences including issues of bias censorship lobbying and propaganda
