What The Twilight Says Essays:

What the Twilight Says Derek Walcott, 1998 The first collection of essays by the Nobel Laureate includes Walcott's moving and insightful examinations of the paradoxes of Caribbean culture including his noted Nobel lecture and his reckoning of the work and significance of such poets as Robert Lowell Joseph Brodsky Robert Frost Seamus Heaney and Ted Hughes Black Theatre Paul Carter Harrison, Victor Leo Walker, Gus Edwards, Walker II Victor Leo, 2002-11 An insider's view of Black theatres of the world and how they reflect their culture concerns and history Derek Walcott Paula Burnett, 2017-08-08 An important contribution to the study of Walcott's poetry and plays Modernism modernity Walcott Burnett says has assimilated western tradition to his own project using it to create a new plural world of open ended possibilities A book that should be of interest to any student of Walcott's literature Times Higher Education Supplement This ambitious book takes in the full corpus of Walcott plays essays interviews etc as well as the poetry and argues the essential unity of his humanistic vision Wasafiri Burnett is very good on Walcott's aesthetic and technical strategies particularly the mythopoeic framework of his thought and the epic form which he frequently employs New West Indian Guide Convincingly suggests that Walcott's art radiates outward from St Lucia to the West Indies the Caribbean Latin America and the Americas becoming an art that honors and enlarges the English language and its multiple histories and usages World Literature Today

Performing Exile, Performing Self Y. Meerzon, 2012-04-05 This book examines the life and art of those contemporary artists who by force or by choice find themselves on other shores It argues that the exilic challenge enables the migr artist to re establish new artistic devices new laws and a new language of communication in both his everyday life and his artistic work The Crowning of a Poet's Quest Paola Loreto, 2009 This first extended study of Derek Walcott's Tiepolo's Hound 2000 defines the book as the culmination of the poetry and poetic of the Caribbean writer and Nobel Prize winner In this long poem Walcott achieves three goals pursued throughout his career to develop an original Caribbean aesthetic to meld the modes of poetry and prose and to formulate the Bildung of the island artist in terms of an autobiographical narrative The analysis provides an aesthetic and cultural evaluation of the poem in terms both of the Western poetic tradition to which it refers through its rich intertextuality and of its significance as a postcolonial milestone The commentary locates Walcott in an aesthetic tradition running from Emerson through the American Pragmatists to modernist poets describes his experimental use of certain central narrative strategies in his semi autobiographical long poems which is compared to those of another openly admired bilingual writer Vladimir Nabokov explores Walcott's revision of the epic mode and of the genre of autobiography delineates his unfolding of a post Romantic internalization of the poet's Arthurian quest and discusses his complex treatment of the multi layered metaphor of light as major evidence of the maturity of his style and poetic with their conscious cross fertilization between the literary cultures of Europe and the Caribbean An appendix to this study contains the transcriptions of various Walcott events that took place in Italy in the summers of 2000 and 2001 including a creative writing seminar a press conference and readings This extensive material opens a window onto Walcott's gifts as a teacher to his stringent yet passionate commitment to the art of poetry and to the ways in which he and his students grapple with the challenges of literary translation
