Jenkins, 2005-05-21 The national bestseller Destined for Greatness. By the end, the reader is flying through the book like a bush plane through the Alaskan interior. The Columbus Dispatch. The author of A Walk Across America, Peter Jenkins is now a bit older than he was in that memoir, married with a family, and his journeys are different than they were. Perhaps he is looking for adventure, perhaps inspiration, perhaps new communities, perhaps unspoiled land. Certainly he found all of this and more in Alaska. America's last wilderness. Looking for Alaska is Peter's account of eighteen months spent traveling over twenty thousand miles in tiny bush planes, on snow machines and snowshoes, in fishing boats and kayaks on the Alaska Marine Highway and the Haul Road, searching for what defines Alaska. Hearing the amazing stories of many real Alaskans from Barrow to Craig Seward to Deering and everywhere in between, Peter gets to know this place in the way that only he can. His resulting portrait is a rare and unforgettable depiction of a dangerous and beautiful land and all the people who call it home. He also took his wife and eight-year-old daughter with him, settling into a home base in Seward on the Kenai Peninsula, coming and going from there and hosting the rest of their family for extended visits. The way his family lived, how they made Alaska their home, and even participated in Peter's explorations is as much a part of this story as Peter's own travels. All in all, Jenkins delivers a warm, funny, awe-inspiring and memorable diary of discovery both of this place that captures all of our imaginations and of himself all over again. Cassette Books Library of Congress, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 1983 Good Housekeeping, 1982 Beyond Backpacking Ray Jardine, 2000 The all-trails version of Jardine's PCT Hiker's Handbook, a more complete explanation of what's becoming known as The Ray Way in hiking circles. Talking Book Topics, 1997 Time, 1982
