Hydrographic Office, 1951 From the Passion to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre Jordan J. Ryan, 2021-01-14 Since the early 4th century Christian pilgrims and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan's overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de mémoire sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception

Remains of the Jews Andrew S. Jacobs, 2004 Remains of the Jews studies the rise of Christian Empire in late antiquity 300-550 C.E. through the dense and complex manner in which Christian authors wrote about Jews in the charged space of the holy land The book employs contemporary cultural studies particularly postcolonial criticism to read Christian writings about holy land Jews as colonial writings These writings created a cultural context in which Christians viewed themselves as powerful and in which perhaps Jews were able to construct a posture of resistance to this new Christian Empire Remains of the Jews reexamines familiar types of literature biblical interpretation histories sermons letters from a new perspective in order to understand how power and resistance shaped religious identities in the later Roman Empire

On the Edge of a Roman Port Elena Korka, Joseph L. Rife, 2023-01-09 Between 2007 and 2014 a Greek American team investigated an impressive array of Early Roman to Early Byzantine buildings and burials on the Koutsongila Ridge at Kenchreai the eastern port of ancient Corinth This volume presents the project's final results revealing abundant evidence not only for the history of activity in a transitional urban/suburban landscape but also for the society economy and religion of local residents Important structural and mortuary discoveries abound including a district of lavish houses with exquisite mosaic pavement and an Early Christian Octagon The large artifactual assemblage encompasses a variety of objects from pottery and lamps to glass coins and jewelry Bones and teeth from over 200 individuals illustrate differences in health over time while thousands of bones and shells from a variety of animals attest to diet and subsistence This study paints a picture of a Corinthian community small but prosperous and well connected actively participating in an urban elite culture expressed through decorative art and monumental architecture
