The Word That Redescribes The World The Bible And Discipleship:

The Political Disciple Vincent E. Bacote, 2015-05-05 What might it mean for public and political life to be understood as an important dimension of following Jesus As a part of Zondervan's Ordinary Theology series Vincent E Bacote's The Political Disciple addresses this question by considering not only whether Christians have or need permission to engage the public square but also what it means to reflect Christlikeness in our public practice as well as what to make of the typically slow rate of social change and the tension between relative allegiance to a nation and or a political party and ultimate allegiance to Christ Pastors laypeople and college students will find this concise volume a handy primer on Christianity and public life

Conversion and Discipleship Bill Hull, 2016-01-12 Discipleship occurs when someone answers the call to learn from Jesus how to live his or her life as though Jesus were living it The end result is that the disciple becomes the kind of person who naturally does what Jesus did How the church understands salvation and the gospel is the key to recovering a biblical theology of discipleship Our doctrines of grace and salvation in some cases actually prevent us from creating an expectation that we are to be disciples of Jesus A person can profess to be a Christian and yet still live under the impression that they don't need to actually follow Jesus Being a follower is seen as an optional add on not a requirement It is a choice not a demand Being a Christian today has no connection with the biblical idea that we are formed into the image of Christ In this groundbreaking new book pastor and author Bill Hull shows why our existing models of evangelism and discipleship fail to actually produce followers of Jesus He looks at the importance of recovering a robust view of the gospel and taking seriously the connection between conversion answering the call to follow Jesus and discipleship living like the one we claim to follow

Hearers and Doers Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2019-05-15 The foundation of discipleship is sound scriptural doctrine The value of sound doctrine is often misunderstood by the modern church While it can be dry and dull when it flows from the story of Scripture it can be full of life and love This kind of doctrine steeped in Scripture is critical for disciple making And it's often overlooked by modern pastors In Hearers and Doers Kevin Vanhoozer makes the case that pastors as pastor theologians ought to interpret Scripture theologically to articulate doctrine and help cultivate disciples scriptural doctrine is vital to the life of the church and local pastor theologians should be the ones delivering it to their communities With arresting prose and striking metaphors Vanhoozer addresses the most pressing problems in the modern church with one answer teach sound scriptural doctrine to make disciples

God's creation and my role in caring for the world he created What am I supposed to think about the refugee in my land I hear political jargon about immigration but is that the same as loving my neighbor wherever they come from These questions and so many more are what led us to publish this topically focused specialty Bible With contributions from 44 scholars and teachers who are respected as experts in their area of contribution this unique Bible provides commentary throughout Scripture to address the subject matter prevalent in culture today but using the Bible as the foundation for providing the framework and foundation for how to live out God's Word In a culture that has become exponentially polarized it can be difficult to think biblically while loving well The NIV Upside Down Kingdom Bible provides readers with Scripture based notes from a set of forty four trusted Christian voices and explores difficult issues facing Christians today with notes and articles that are honest nuanced and filled with grace The NIV Upside Down Kingdom Bible provides hundreds of side column notes full page articles essays and book introductions that skillfully and thoughtfully address the prevalent topics at the forefront of living in our current context Features Complete text of the accurate readable and clear New International Version NIV Project leadership by general editor Dr Preston Sprinkle along with contributions from forty three other experts scholars and teachers widely considered trusted voices in their field of study Book introductions Full page articles throughout Hundreds of side column notes Two color page design Single column Bible format for an easier reading experience Satin ribbon marker Durable hardcover that lies flat when open Exclusive Zondervan NIV Comfort Print typeface Print Size 8.5 Full list of topics Sanctity of Life What does the Bible say about Abortion and Reproduction Art and Worship Baptism Creation Care Death and Afterlife Divorce Family and Kinship Festivals Food and Drink Grace Holiness Lament and Grief Leadership and Power Mental Health Migration Politics Race and Ethnicity Sabbath Satan Demons Angels and Giants Science Sexuality and Gender Singleness and Friendship Slavery Social Justice Technology and Media Trauma and Resilience Violence and Warfare Wealth and Poverty Witchcraft and Magic Women in the Bible

Becoming a Disciple of Jesus John Sandoz, 2018-10-15 Christian growth is a deeply personal and spiritual choice that recognizes our unending need for Jesus not only as Savior but also as LORD over our lives That recognition sometimes comes after losing the things that seemed to matter most and humbly acknowledging before God that we need a new life and not just a better version of the old life which produced little of lasting value Discipleship is not and never can be a self improvement program because self is actually a big part of the problem Transforming our lives is not something we can do because even on our best days our sin nature opposes such transformation As the Apostle Paul said For the good that I wish I do not do but I practice the very evil that I do not wish Rom 7:19 Our only hope for real change resides in Jesus assurance that what is impossible for man is possible for God Becoming a Disciple of Jesus provides a year in Christian growth composed of fifty two weekly lessons that develop both our vertical relationship with God and our horizontal relationships with others through the works of faith which God has prepared for us Each work of faith is accomplished by our belief in the Holy Spirit's ability to transform us into instruments of God's peace and love Over time this truth becomes both our heart's desire and a glorious reward as we gain freedom from the negative thought patterns and behaviors that previously governed our lives Paradoxically admitting the things we struggled with to God unleashes His healing presence at a deep heart level As beings created in His image we all resemble partially completed sculptures God the Master Sculptor removes our undesirable traits so we can become complete as the persons He made us to be able to use our God-given gifts to glorify Him as shining examples of His love The Christian World Pulpit ,1914 Popular Commentary of the Bible: Old Testament : the poetical and the prophetic books Paul Edward Kretzmann,1921 Transformational Discipleship Henry Webb,1999-08 The Digital Public Square Jason Thacker,2023-02-01 The Digital Public Square brings together top Christian leaders and thinkers to help believers navigate the pressing challenges of living in a digital society The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1903 The Numerical Bible ,1899 Angling for Interpretation Ernst M. Conradie,2008-07-01 The aim of this guide is to provide a first introduction to biblical theological and contextual hermeneutics Hermeneutics is the subject that analyses the process of interpretation One could say that hermeneutics is the theoretical study of interpretation As a first introduction it is primarily aimed at first year students but church groups may also find it useful Essentials of Discipleship Francis M.
