The Voices Of Women Artists:

The Voices of Women Artists Wendy Slatkin, 1993 Concise introductions provide key background information concerning the biographies of the artists presented in this anthology of over thirty texts by women painters and sculptors from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Art historical issues are integrated with literary history to define the matrix for these writings For professional artists and all those interested in women artists Voices of Women Artists Wendy Slatkin, 2002-12-01

Voicing Our Visions Mara Rose Witzling, 1991 Over the centuries the art establishment has turned a deaf ear to the voices of women artists These women were not silent however but constantly struggling to articulate their experience For the first time the unique and powerful voices of twenty female artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including such luminaries as Georgia O Keeffe Berthe Morisot Mary Cassatt Barbara Hepworth Faith Ringgold Paula Modersohn Becker and Frida Kahlo have been gathered together in a single volume These women all made eloquent and revealing disclosures about the personal and aesthetic issues that shaped their private lives and their work Often working in isolation beset by doubt and ignored by the commercial art world they kept written records of their anxieties their triumphs and their artistic themes and methods in a wide variety of formats Included are excerpts from private diaries letters essays articles poems stories and aesthetic manifestoes Much of the material appears in print for the first time The writings of artists have become an essential vehicle for understanding their art A milestone in art history Voicing Our Visions is compelling reading for anyone concerned with women and art This lively collection of texts provides a clearer understanding and deeper enjoyment of the work of twenty leading women artists Back Cover

Women Artists in History from Antiquity to the Present Wendy Slatkin, 2018-12-31 Details the contributions of women artists to the history of visual arts with works from such mediums as painting sculpture and photography illustrating the work In Her Own Words: A Primary Sourcebook of Autobiographical Texts by Women Artists in the 19th and 20th Centuries (Third Edition) Wendy Slatkin, 2019-04 In Her Own Words A Primary Source Book of Autobiographical Texts by Women Artists in the 19th and 20th Centuries gives voice to sixteen influential women artists providing students with a highly personal lens through which they can analyze and interpret each artist s visual works The material progresses chronologically to better situate the artistic and literary works of the featured women within a coherent cultural framework The Introduction to the book defines the genres of self narratives and assists the reader in the development of interpretive strategies for comprehending primary sources Within each chapter students read about an individual artist author learning about her life the historical significance of her work and the subject matter and stylistic idiom of her visual art and written texts Readers then explore autobiographical narratives journal and diary entries and letters works that illuminate each artist s early sense of artistic vocation her creative process her position on marriage and motherhood her attitudes toward recognition popular success and the public persona of the artist and her political beliefs and opinions on contemporary feminist movements Women artists featured include

Elisabeth Vig e Lebrun Harriet Hosmer Rosa Bonheur Berthe Morisot Marie Bashkirtseff Paula Modersohn Becker K the Kollwitz Georgia O Keeffe Frida Kahlo Louise Nevelson Elizabeth Catlett Carolee Schneeman Alice Neel Judy Chicago Faith Ringgold and Louise Bourgeois Featuring accessible and engaging narratives that contextualize and bring women artists works to life In Her Own Words is an ideal collection for courses in art history gender studies women s literature and creative writing

The Reckoning Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2014-05-12 The authors of After the Revolution return with an incisive study of the work of contemporary women artists In After the Revolution the authors concluded that The battles may not all have been won but barricades are gradually coming down and work proceeds on all fronts in glorious profusion Now with The Reckoning authors Heartney Posner Princenthal and Scott bring into focus the accomplishments of 24 acclaimed international women artists born since 1960 who have benefited from the groundbreaking efforts of their predecessors The book is organized in four thematic sections Bad Girls profiles artists whose work represents an assault on conventional notions of gender and racial difference History Lessons offers reflections on the self in the context of history and globalization Spellbound focuses on women s embrace of the irrational subjective and surreal while Domestic Disturbances takes on women s conflicted relationship to home family and security Written in lively prose and fully illustrated throughout this book gives an informed account of the wonderful diversity of recent contemporary art by women An indispensable contribution to the literature on contemporary art by women Whitney Chadwick author of Women Art and Society In the 2007 book After the Revolution Women Who Transformed Contemporary Art the authors set a new standard in documenting and evaluating the work of a dozen key women artists spanning generations between the 1960s to the 2000s The beat goes on with the appearance of The Reckoning written by the same authors in the same accessible scholarly style but reflecting important historical changes over the past decade and more In line with the increased presence of women in mainstream art the book includes twice as many artists as its predecessor And its global reach has expanded vastly stretching from Europe and the Americas to Africa and China Holland Cotter The New York Times

After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement
