The Web Of Preaching New Options In Homiletic Method:

The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger, 2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching they often do not know where to begin Who are the best representatives of a given approach How do the different methods relate to one another How has the preaching scene changed in recent years In The Web of Preaching Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching Surveying the most important current theories of preaching he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching This book is a follow up to Eslinger's earlier A New Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987

Preaching Must Die! Jacob D. Myers, 2017-10-18 The real question for homiletics in our increasingly postmodern post Christian contexts is not how we are going to prevent preaching from dying but how we are going to help it die a good death Preaching was not made to live At most preaching is a witness a sign a crimson X marking a demolition site The church has developed sophisticated technologies in modernity to give preaching the semblance of life belying the truth preaching was born under a death sentence It was born to die Only when preaching embraces its own death is it able to live This book then is a bold homiletical manifesto against preaching in support of preaching and beyond preaching to the entire worship experience It troubles modern homiletical theologies in light of the trouble always already at work within preaching Hereby it supports a way of preaching and teaching preaching that moves counter to the wisdom of this world It aims to joins in God's self revealed counterlogic of superabundance that saturates and thereby breaks open worldly systems of thought and practice The purpose of this book is to expose preaching to its own death to help it embrace its death so that it can discover what eternal and abundant life might look and feels like

Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton, 2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God's people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God's people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God's gospel then and now while calling God's people to perform their own roles in today's moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God's drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week

Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A. Ajibade, 2021-06-30 How can expository preaching rooted in a textual analysis of Scripture be effectively utilized in oral cultures In Expository Preaching in Africa Ezekiel A Ajibade engages this challenge directly offering practical techniques for integrating African oral elements such as myths proverbs folklore dance drama poetry and storytelling into preaching that is both biblical and African Alongside numerous examples and tools Ajibade provides a rich overview of the nature of orality the history and development of African preaching and the reason biblical exposition must be central to gospel proclamation He reminds us that it is the word of God incarnated among us that has the power to transform lives and revitalize nations Contextualized expository preaching is not therefore one technique to be utilized among many it is rather the heart of biblical teaching and the future of the African church While contributing significantly to studies in contextualization and homiletics this book is immediately applicable to practitioners especially African preachers and those working in oral contexts That Which They Can't See David Van Brugge,2025-01-20 In this retrieval study David Van Brugge addresses how the current understanding of a homiletical use of imagination for expository preaching might be strengthened The current need for strengthening becomes apparent when the various understandings of imagination and their implications for practical theology are realized This is compounded as trends in homiletics seem to minimize the imagination or embrace it in modern or postmodern ways The original contribution of this study is recognizing that the homiletical use of imagination can be strengthened by retrieving the Puritan baroque characteristics of Jonathan Edwards imagination as evidenced in his sermons to the Stockbridge Indians of 1751 1758 Edwards drew on a rich background to display an imagination that synthesized thoughts and ideas thought beyond the senses and that by the grace of God transformed thought and practice Through that creative thought Edwards maintained Biblical exposition and appeal to the affections Van Brugge further develops and evaluates the idea of Puritan baroque characteristics concluding that it is a helpful characterization of Edwards Stockbridge Indian sermons In these sermons Edwards imaginatively used imagery light space movement and glorification for the ultimate goal of directing the affections of his audience towards God Such a use of imagination for affective purpose becomes a key for the strengthening of a homiletical use of imagination today Distance in Preaching Michael Brothers,2014-09-22 Based on several years of teaching and careful observation in preaching classes this book by Michael Brothers explores the benefits of distance in preaching and listening to sermons Having noticed that sermon listeners generally want to be given room for their own interpretations and experiences Brothers argues that critical and aesthetic distance as a hermeneutical tool is vital to hearing the gospel today and should be intentionally employed in sermon construction and delivery He explains this distance in the field of homiletics equips teachers and students of preaching to evaluate the function of distance in sermons and encourages preachers to practice the use of distance in their preaching What's the Shape of Narrative Preaching? Mike Graves,2012 They are there after an urgent need a moment of desperation Like Ellen Cardwell s telling of a highway angel who helped Ellen and her husband resume their trip after car trouble on California s desolate Highway 1 Or Delores Topliff s memory from her childhood when on the brink of starvation an angel on a bicycle dropped off bags of groceries These stories will challenge and reward your faith in God a God Who tells us to entertain strangers and possibly Heavenly Company Contained within this book is an exclusive collection of real life encounters with God s angels and mysterious helpful strangers Best selling author Cecil Murphey coauthor of 90 Minutes in Heaven and more than one hundred other books and his cowriter Twila Belk masterfully bring together brand new reports from all over the world that share one thing in common the way in which God uses messengers to touch our lives Filled with hundreds of pages of stories that will excite your spirit and touch your heart you ll travel from Africa to Texas to Russia and back again Curl up with this powerful book and read amazing true accounts of individuals who have encountered angels both seen and unseen

Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong,2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology s critical reflection on marginalized people s wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God s future in our lives and confirming God s active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships marginality ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory namely a psalmic theological homiletic This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement This re envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel s psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope filled life through communal anticipation of God s coming future on the margins Specifically this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement i e lament retelling a story confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice
