Prayer as Joy, Prayer as Struggle Mark Braaten, 2008 Mark Braaten describes the experience of seeing the sun rise on a northern Minnesota lake and spontaneously offering thanks to God He describes sitting beside his children s bed as they sleep and resting in the awareness of God s blessings Confronted by such beauty prayer flows out of us That is to say there are times when we are easily aware that we are in the presence of God our awe comes naturally and our prayer is full of joy But Braaten also points out that at times prayer is a struggle Life is often not awe inspiring and prayer is often not easy We find our praying frustrating and difficult Our prayer life is a journey of both joy and struggle It is learning to recognize and reach out to God even more it is recognizing how God is constantly reaching out to us Braaten explores many types of prayer including thanksgiving confession praise wrestling petition intercession listening and hope He also explores what it means when the answer to prayer is no and how we experience prayer in doubt and in confidence In each chapter he uses an extended biblical example of prayer and also provides the text of prayers we can use in our own practice For all who seek joy in prayer even as we struggle Braaten offers an engaging personal and pastoral reflection on the ways we pray The Westminster ,1905 Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates , *Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates ...
