Stealing Through Time Jack Seabrook, 2006-04-13 The writings of twentieth century author Jack Finney are classic contributions to the genres of science fiction and suspense thrillers in American literature Two of Finney s novels The Body Snatchers and Good Neighbor Sam became the basis of popular films but it was his time travel story Time and Again 1970 that won him a devoted following The novel about an advertising artist who travels back to the New York of the 1880s quickly became a cult favorite celebrated especially by New Yorkers for its rich descriptions of life in the city at that time The year of his death Finney finished the sequel From Time to Time 1995 In 1955 he published The Body Snatchers a chilling tale of aliens who emerge from pods in the guise of humans Many critics interpreted the insidious infiltration by aliens as a cold war allegory that dramatized America s looming fear of a communist invasion and the 1956 film Invasion of the Body Snatchers was remade twice Over the course of his career Finney wrote ten novels more than 50 short stories two plays and a work of nonfiction all of which are presented and discussed in this book Also reproduced in full and analyzed is a series of letters exchanged between Finney and various persons associated with his alma mater Knox College These letters give rare insight into Finney s character and demonstrate his personal interest in some of the themes that recur in his fiction This work begins with an overview of Finney s life and career presents a complete assessment of the author s works and concludes with a look at the various ways that Finney s works have been adapted for the stage television and film Also included is the first comprehensive list of Jack Finney s writings ever published

European Notebooks François Bondy, A generation of outstanding European thinkers emerged out of the rubble of World War II It was a group unparalleled in their probing of an age that had produced totalitarianism as a political norm and the Holocaust as its supreme nightmarish achievement Figures ranging from George Lichtheim Ignazio Silone Raymond Aron Andrei Amalrik among many others found a home in Encounter None stood taller or saw further than Franois Bondy of Zurich In a moving tribute to his friend Melvin J Lasky long time editor of Encounter writes Bondy was a breathtaking spectacle I had known him to read and walk to think and talk all at once and still make mental notes for his next article Early or late seated or standing awake or asleep his incomparable spiritedness would always be darting from point to point paying attention and idly wandering at once Taken all in all he still continues to represent for me perhaps a Henry Jamesian New Man Bondy s essays themselves represent a broad sweep of major figures and events in the second half of the twentieth century His spatial outreach went from Budapest to Tokyo and Paris His political essays extended from George Kennan to Benito Mussolini And his prime mtier the cultural figures of Europe covered Sartre Kafka Heidegger and Milosz The analysis was uniformly fair minded but unstinting in its insights Taken together the variegated themes he raised in his work as a Zurich journalist a Paris editor and a European homme de letres sketch guidelines for an entrancing portrait of the intellectual as cosmopolitan European Notebooks contains most of the articles that Bondy 1915 2003 wrote for Encounter under the stewardship of Stephen Spender Irving Kristol and then for the thirty years that Melvin Lasky served as editor Bondy was that rare unattached intellectual free of every totalitarian temptation and as Lasky notes unfailing in his devotion to the liberties and civilities of a humane social order European Notebooks offers a window into a civilization that came to maturity during the period in which these essays were written Melvin J Lasky was the editor of Encounter from 1958 until 1990 before that he was the editor of Der Monat in Berlin and served as foreign correspondent for the New York Times and The Reporter He is the author of The Hungarian Revolution and Profanity Obscenity and the Media HNAI Long Beach Signature Auction Catalog #384 Ivy Press,2005-08 The Greatest
