 Richard Wells, 2021-09-02 This richly illustrated anthology gathers together classic short stories from masters of supernatural fiction including M R James Sheridan Le Fanu and Arthur Machen alongside lesser known voices in the field including Eleanor Scott and Margery Lawrence and popular writers less bound to the horror genre such as Thomas Hardy and E F Benson These are damnably tales selected and beautifully illustrated by Richard Wells They stalk the moors at night the deep forests cornered fields and dusky churchyards the narrow lanes and old ways of these ancient places drawing upon the haunted landscapes of folk horror a now widely used term first applied to a series of British films from the late 1960s and 1970s Witchfinder General 1968 Blood on Satan's Claw 1971 and The Wicker Man 1973 But as this collection shows writers of uncanny fiction were dabbling in the dark side of folklore long before These twenty two stories take the reader beyond the safety and familiarity of the town into the isolated and untamed wilderness Unholy rites witches curses sinister village traditions and ancient horrors that lurk within the landscape all combine to remind us that the shiny modern urban world
