

Advance Praise for THE VIADUCT

"Indeed, when Charles Brown last lived able to write the nation the sentence, the sentence of Harlem of the twelfth century of the old Harlem's dark streets, Grace F. Edwards has written a thrilling, gripping tale of life's contrasts: life and death, hope and loss, mystery and the double possibilities of tomorrow that might never come."

—Charles Brown, Harlem (New York, 1934)

"In the gripping tale of murder, mystery, and suspense, Grace F. Edwards once again vividly captures the beauty and despair that are Harlem."

—Harlem (New York, 1934)

"With the author's knowledge and an artist's grasp, Grace F. Edwards depicts a dark picture of a city, its struggling, impoverished, a difficult time, and people trying to make it, trying to forget, trying to live — or hope — that they can live."

—L. J. (New York, 1934)

The Viaduct Grace Frederica Edwards, 2004 Everything started on that viaduct and that's where everything ends Violence Death Despair Suspense writer Grace F Edwards presents a heart stopping twister that follows the interconnecting lives of two shattered men Marin Taylor a Vietnam vet is accosted one night on a Harlem viaduct In the struggle Marin throws one man to his death the other flees after stabbing Marin and stealing his wallet The two attackers were brothers and Conroy the brother who survived vows to avenge his brother's death Marin survives the attack but his injuries and the terror he experienced awaken graphic memories of an incident he was involved in four years earlier in Vietnam He is still recuperating when his newborn child is kidnapped from the hospital Struggling with his own emotional turmoil and wife's devastating reaction to the kidnapping Marin must race against time to stop a deranged stalker from carrying out an act of deadly revenge As Marin searches for his missing child Edwards brilliantly brings to life Harlem in the 1970s the political figures the local restaurants night clubs and dance halls and the famous 3 B's of Harlem beauty parlors barbershops and bars In her expert hands readers are treated not only to gripping suspense but also to a richly detailed glimpse of Harlem's lively and complex history Edwards takes us on a gripping journey through dire streets and lost dreams Readers will meet compelling characters who grapple with past demons and the uncertain present of shadowy Harlem nights The Greenwood

Encyclopedia of African American Literature: D-H Hans A. Ostrom, J. David Macey, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher Ebony, 2004-01 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine African American Mystery Writers Frankie Y.

Bailey, 2014-01-10 The book describes the movement by African American authors from slave narratives and antebellum newspapers into fiction writing and the subsequent developments of black genre fiction through the present It analyzes works by modern African American mystery writers focusing on sleuths the social locations of crime victims and offenders the notion of doing justice and the role of African American cultural vernacular in mystery fiction A final section focuses on readers and reading examining African American mystery writers access to the marketplace and the issue of the double audience raised by earlier writers Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

100 Most Popular African American Authors Bernard A. Drew, 2006-11-30 Here's a one-stop resource containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with complete lists of their works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide stresses African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers and Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley and Omar Tyree, with a few classic literary giants also included. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Where can you find information about popular contemporary African American authors? Web sites can be difficult to locate and unreliable, particularly for some of the newer authors, and their contents are inconsistent and often inaccurate. Although there are a number of reference works on African American writers, the emphasis tends to be on historical and literary authors. Here's a single volume containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with lists of their works. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide covers African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers, Octavia Butler, and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley, Omar Tyree, and Zane. A few classic literary giants who are popular with today's readers are also included, e.g., Maya Angelou, Toni Morrison, and Richard Wright. Readers who want to know more about their favorite African American authors or find other books written by those authors, students researching AA authors for reports and papers, and educators seeking background information for classes in African American literature will find this guide invaluable. High school and up.

Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw, 2020-10-01 The first book-length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath, this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture. It focuses on four novels: Captain Blackman (1972) by John A. Williams, Tragic Magic (1978) by Wesley Brown, Coming Home (1971) by George Davis, and De Mojo Blues (1985) by A. R. Flowers. Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought. The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory. He is engaged, therefore, in re-membering, a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival. The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero's empathy with and compassion for the so-called enemy, a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature.

AfroAsian Encounters Heike Raphael-Hernandez, Shannon Steen, 2006-11 How might we understand yellowface performances by African Americans in 1930s swing adaptations of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado?

Paul Robeson's support of Asian and Asian American struggles or the absorption of hip hop by Asian American youth culture

AfroAsian Encounters is the first anthology to look at the mutual influence of and relationships between members of the African and Asian diasporas in the Americas While these two groups have often been thought of as occupying incommensurate if not opposing cultural and political positions scholars from history literature media and the visual arts here trace their interconnections and interactions as well as how they have been set in opposition by white systems of racial domination AfroAsian Encounters probes beyond popular culture to trace the historical lineage of these coalitions from the post Civil War era through the present From the history of Japanese jazz composers to the current popularity of black Asian buddy films like Rush Hour AfroAsian Encounters is a groundbreaking intervention into studies of race and ethnicity and a crucial look at the shifting meaning of race in America in the twenty first century

Beloved Harlem William H. Banks, Jr., 2010-07-07 A passionate ode to an American mecca Beloved Harlem is a literary look into the vibrant African American haven edited by one of its celebrated native sons William H Banks Jr combines the classics with the contemporary as he showcases some of the best essays short stories and novel excerpts inspired by the diversity of Harlem life from the early twentieth century to the new millennium The days and nights of black Manhattan come alive in the words of historically famous writers like W E B Dubois Zora Neale Hurston Langston Hughes Dorothy West Ossie Davis and Toni Morrison along with the works of brilliant newcomers to the neighborhood including Brian Keith Jackson's witty examination of identity politics in The Queen of Harlem and Rosemarie Robatham's Dreaming in Harlem a moving tale about a woman at the edge of society who finds sanctuary with a stranger From renaissance through tough times to revitalization this triumphant homage gives Harlem the historical perspective it so rightly deserves Beloved Harlem is a welcome addition to the libraries of readers who are either already in love with Harlem or ready to take the fall
