Gita the Ribhu Gita literally the Song of Ribhu represents the highest declaration of Advaita Vedanta spoken by the enlightened sage Ribhu to his disciple Nidagha on the slopes of Mount Kedara in the Himalayas Some 2 500 years later another awakened master Sri Ramana Maharshi was touched by these same words considering them to be one of the most sublime expressions of the awakened state that humanity had ever produced He spoke of it reverently and would even give copies to his devotees to read The version that follows is a selection made by Sri Ramana Maharshi himself of 45 verses that capture the very essence of the Ribhu Gita an essence that this fresh and masterful modern translation manages to communicate in simple and elegant English perfectly adapted to the Western reader The book also contains the story of Ribhu and Nidagha as told by Sri Ramana Maharshi as well as excerpts from informal talks with his students to further clarify the themes

The Book of Enlightened Masters Andrew Rawlinson, 1997 This is the definitive and complete book about a phenomenon which did not exist a hundred years ago but is now growing rapidly and dramatically changing Western culture the rise of Western mostly American teachers who fill the role of guru or master A few books have appeared on some narrow aspects of this astounding phenomenon this is the first book to survey the entire field Encyclopedic in its scope The Book of Enlightened Masters includes biographical essays on 140 spiritual teachers giving their life stories and an account of their teachings Yet it is also a user friendly introduction with a survey of the teachers and their teachings a historical narrative of how and when the movement developed and an evaluation of the issues raised by it A century ago there were no Western masters no Westerners who were for instance Hindu swamis Zen roshis or Sufi sheikhs Now there are many such teachers with millions of followers Starting from scratch the West has produced its own spiritual teachers in traditions that until recently were utterly alien And in the last quarter century a number of independent teachers have appeared who belong to no single identifiable tradition The Western masters have not merely transplanted the Eastern spiritual traditions to the West they have transformed these traditions by their distinctively Western approach innovative entrepreneurial and combining elements from previously unconnected Eastern traditions The new teachers are changing Western culture by making available a view of the human condition which is new in the West but very attractive to large and growing numbers of Westerners an approach Dr Rawlinson calls spiritual psychology Spiritual psychology holds that human beings are best understood in terms of consciousness and its modifications that consciousness can be changed by spiritual practice and that there are enlightened masters who have done this and can teach others

Religions and Rituals Prof. Dulal Bhattacharya, Warring religions and continuous abuse of Hinduism prompted me to write this book In the usual comparative religion approach similes are shown while contrasts and conflicts are avoided with a passing mention I have written both similes and contrasts for a better evaluation In this context I remember a story that I read about the King of Hispaniola as told by the boasting Spaniards After the Spaniards captured the King of Hispaniola they put him up on stakes to burn Before setting the fire the padre of the Spaniards asked the King if he would agree to accept Christianity since it would not only save his life but would also guarantee his entry into heaven after death The King after listening to the padre asked if all Spaniards go to heaven after death The padre answered in the affirmative The King then said that heaven must be a very vile place full of cruel people and the King further added that they can put fire so that he can happily join his forefathers This story is a good reminder of how religions can make people cruel unless there is a good way of self evaluation This book seeks to fill up that gap in the study of comparative religion It will supplement contemporary books like Snakes in Ganga by Rajeev Malhotra and documentary films like The Kashmir Files by Vivek Agnihotri

Eastern Approaches to Western Film Stephen

Teo, 2019-07-11 Eastern Approaches to Western Film Asian Aesthetics and Reception in Cinema offers a renewed critical outlook on Western classic film directly from the pantheon of European and American masters including Alfred Hitchcock George Lucas Robert Bresson Carl Dreyer Jean Pierre Melville John Ford Leo McCarey Sam Peckinpah and Orson Welles The book contributes an Eastern Approach into the critical studies of Western films by reappraising selected films of these masters matching and comparing their visions themes and ideas with the philosophical and paradigmatic principles of the East It traces Eastern inscriptions and signs embedded within these films as well as their social lifestyle values and other concepts that are also inherently Eastern As such the book represents an effort to reformulate established discourses on Western cinema that are overwhelmingly Eurocentric Although it seeks to inject an alternative perspective the ultimate aim is to reach a balance of East and West By focusing on Eastern aesthetic and philosophical influences in Western films the book suggests that there is a much more thorough integration of East and West than previously thought or imagined
