The Power of the Ring Stratford Caldecott, 2005 The Power of the Ring is the first book to show how Catholic themes of quest devotion and forgiveness are as Tolkien said at the very heart of The Lord of the Rings trilogy

The Publishers Weekly, 2004 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2004 The Encyclopedia of New York State Peter Eisenstadt, 2005-05-19 The Encyclopedia of New York State is one of the most complete works on the Empire State to be published in a half century In nearly 2 000 pages and 4 000 signed entries this single volume captures the impressive complexity of New York State as a historic crossroads of people and ideas as a cradle of abolitionism and feminism and as an apex of modern urban suburban and rural life The Encyclopedia is packed with fascinating details from fields ranging from sociology and geography to history Did you know that Manhattan s Lower East Side was once the most populated neighborhood in the world but Hamilton County in the Adirondacks is the least densely populated county east of the Mississippi New York is the only state to border both the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean the Erie Canal opened New York City to rich farmland upstate and to the west Entries by experts chronicle New York s varied areas politics and persuasions with a cornucopia of subjects from environmentalism to higher education to railroads weaving the state s diverse regions and peoples into one idea of New York State Lavishly illustrated with 500 photographs and figures 120 maps and 140 tables the Encyclopedia is key to understanding the state s past present and future It is a crucial reference for students teachers historians and business people for New Yorkers of all persuasions and for anyone interested in finding out more about New York State

Lady Father Susan Bowman, 2011-05 Lady Father is a narrative account of my journey through the ordination process in the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Virginia of the 1980 s and the subsequent years of ordained ministry As the first female admitted to the ordination process by the Rt Rev C Charles Vach 7th Bishop of Southern Virginia who was then a strong and vocal opponent of the ordination of women I was a reluctant pioneer Dubbed the Lady Father I have served the church for 25 years and I am now offering my experiences and the insights I learned from them to others who feel a similar call and who may find themselves on a similar journey against the flow Lady Father is filled with anecdotes that will ring true with many clergy bring hope to those aspiring to ordination and shed light on the continuing debate in the Church over who should be ordained The Process described in the book is a journey most clergy have traveled but my story is a unique blend of the obstacles denials and rejections I faced and overcame along with the uplifting moments and spiritual growth that came out of the struggle It is truthful and so at times it is painful it is often light hearted even humorous it is moving as it deals with real people real events and real emotions and most of all it is mine my story my journey my life

New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1969 Pilgrim and Pioneer Elizabeth P. Wiesner, 1989

Desert Deacon Pam Halbert, 2015-09-30 Climb every mountain Find out how a fun loving young girl was motivated to turn early life tragedy and challenges into a life of freedom and mountain top experience Discover how a strong faith courage and tenacity were required to reverse her destiny and find her true identity This memoir is of one of Western Australia's first female Anglican deacons and priest to be given a Parish within the North Eastern Goldfields incorporating Leinster Leonora and Laverton Her journey will certainly enlighten and encourage women to overcome adversity Pamela Halbert tells of her courageous life From her beginning as the daughter of Australian pastoral parents and carrying that strong perspective into her personal challenges whether working in suburbia remote mining centres or rural communities A

Priest Forever Carter Heyward, 1999 Revelation Dale Coleman, 2019-03-20 Over the forty plus years of his adult vocation as an Episcopal priest Dale Coleman has wanted to write about his journey from the Salvation Army to the Episcopal Church He wished to be in a Christian church with elbow room that would allow questions true spiritual growth and faith seeking understanding Dale is fearless in looking at the Episcopal Church and especially his seminary days at a smells and bells traditional Anglican Seminary He writes boldly and freely about the boy he was and the man he has become placing his first allegiance in the Lord Jesus Christ Christians need to be honest and clear about their faith in the growing toxicity of our culture His first questions from his youth were Where did the Bible come from and how is it to be read and interpreted These and many other questions about the Christian church its faith and life are addressed in this book If you've ever wondered about such matters this is the book for you The Calling Nancy Charton, 2009 The issue of women's ordination still occasionally makes the news The controversy over women Bishops in the 2008 Church of England synod is a case in point Within the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches the struggle continues despite growing evidence of the full ordination of women to the diaconate during the first four centuries of Christian history Yet it is in personal histories such as this one that the true nature of women's struggle with the Church to claim their full humanity becomes apparent This is also a quintessentially South African story of a woman struggling against the multi layered obstacles put in her way sexual abuse class prejudice cultural chauvinism patriarchy and Apartheid have all played their part in trying to keep Nancy Charton from achieving her destiny but like a rock the mbokodo of the slogan she has been weathered but not broken and emerged fully into her calling as a priest and canon of the Anglican Church in South Africa This book charts Nancy's life from the moment of the calling by God in the garden of a miner's cottage on the Witwatersrand through her painful growing years when she lost her faith to her re emergence into faith with a mission as a community activist campaigner against forced removals crusading academic and finally as a pioneering advocate of full ordination for women in the Anglican Church Publisher's website Deeper Joy Fredrica Harris Thompsett, Sheryl Kujawa-Holbrook, 2004-03 Throughout the 20th century lay women in the Episcopal Church often acting in isolation and without institutional support offered a powerful witness of leadership vocation and theological resilience Deeper Joy studies groups of women with similar callings yet located in diverse settings throughout church and society such as schools hospitals and other civic institutions The topics presented here reflect new historical perspectives and unexplored primary materials including interviews that bear on all women s ministries hence addressing neglected and important aspects of life in the American church After an introductory chapter on women and vocation five major sections will explore lay women s vocations through the lenses of community life education mission civic life and working for change from within the Episcopal Church Topics include Anglican sisterhoods the Companions of the Holy Cross the deaconess movement women of the New Deal women in foreign missions the settlement house movement and women in education The views of African American Asian Hispanic and Native American women are all represented A concluding chapter addresses future directions for leadership and service

Why Me, Lord? Betty Bone Schiess, 2003-05 Schiess weaves together her experiences and that of other women priests with the history of the women s movement in the region Her memoir contributes substantially not only to religion but also to the literature on feminist and legal scholarship

BOOK JACKET The Bishop's Daughter Honor Moore, 2009-04-28 Paul Moore s vocation as an Episcopal priest took him from prominence as an activist to two decades as the bishop of New York This work is his daughter s story of the complex visionary man 22 photographs

And One was a Priest Araminta Stone Johnston, 2011 The story of the civil rights movement is not simply the history of its major players but is also the stories of a host of lesser known individuals whose actions were essential to the movement s successes Duncan M Gray Jr an Episcopal priest who served various Mississippi parishes between 1953 and 1974 when he was elected bishop of Mississippi is one of these individuals And One Was a Priest is his remarkable story From one perspective Gray b 1926 would seem an unlikely spokesman for racial equality and reconciliation He could have been content simply to become a member of the white male Mississippi club Gray could have embraced a comfortable life and ignored the burning realities around him But he chose instead to use his priesthood to speak in unpopular but prophetic support of justice and equality for African Americans From his student days at the seminary at the University of the South to his first church in Cleveland Mississippi and most famously to St Peter s Parish in Oxford where he confronted rioters in 1962 Gray steadfastly and fearlessly fought the status quo He continued to work for racial reconciliation inside and outside of the church throughout his life This biography tells not only Gray s story but also reveals the times and people that helped make him The author s question is What makes a good person And One Was a Priest suggests there is much to learn from Gray s choices and his struggle
