The Victorian Illustrated Book The Victorian Illustrated Book:

The Victorian Illustrated Book Richard Maxwell, 2002 US scholars of literature explore how illustrated books became a cultural form of great importance in England and Scotland from the 1830s and 1840s to the end of the century Some of them consider particular authors or editions but others look at general themes such as illustrations of time maps and metaphors literal illustration and city scenes Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Serials to Graphic Novels Catherine J. Illustration in Fin-de-Siècle Transatlantic Romance Fiction Kate Holterhoff, 2022-03-07. This book examines illustrations created to accompany fictions written by several of the most popular authors published in Britain and America between 1885 and 1920. By studying the lavish illustrations that complemented not only initial serializations but also subsequent publications of fictions by H. Rider Haggard, Rudyard Kipling, James De Mille, Robert Louis Stevenson, and H. G. Wells, the book demonstrates the significance of images to the fin de siècle romance form. In order to make fantastic plots seem possible, graphic artists worked hand in hand with authors to not only fill gaps in audience understanding but also expand and deepen the meaning of these marvels. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, visual culture, illustration studies, British and American history, and British and American literature.

Victorian Illustrated Books Clare Warrack, London, Literature and Image in the Long Nineteenth Century Amina Alyal, 2023-09-12. This book explores some of the ways in which word and image worked together in the nineteenth century in terms of pictures, poetry, and fiction. The authors keep in mind how word and image negotiate and compete for each other's spaces. They seek to interrogate how image arises from absences in texts and how image gives rise to narrative or voice. Topics include ekphrasis, illustration, literary representations of artists, the visual in writing, the staging of images, and the textualization of theatrical tableaux and related cultural and ideological tropes. This is covered in three main areas: ideological and philosophical resonances of image and text in fiction; the peculiar fusion of text and image that was the bread and butter of the Pre-Raphaelites; and book illustration, especially the tensions between writer and artist as authors of the text. The volume will be of interest to students
