The Way Of Salvation The Role Of Christian Obedience In Justification:

The Way of Salvation Paul A. Rainbow, 2012-12-01 Martin Luther invented the Reformation slogan sola fide by faith alone which Philipp Melanchthon and John Calvin brandished and defended Most Protestants since their time have swallowed it whole But is evangelical obedience the good works that follow faith and are produced by grace excluded from the basis for justification or otherwise Asserting that there is no more serious question bearing upon the destiny of human beings than how sinners can be justified before a Holy God Paul Rainbow examines current and traditional treatments of faith works and justification marshals a biblical case majoring on the New Testament teaching of Paul and James and offers a series of systematic historical and pastoral reflections

Four Views on the Role of Works at the Final Judgment Robert N. Wilkin, Thomas R. Schreiner, James D. G. Dunn, Michael P. Barber, 2013-07-09 Through a discussion of Biblical texts this book presents four perspectives on the role of works at the final judgment The final judgment is the last and final act before God dwells with his people forever Scripture makes that clear but what function do our actions play in the final assessment of our souls especially those of professing Christians The contributors each state their case for one of four prominent views on the effect of works at the end of time Robert N Wilkin Works will determine rewards but not salvation Thomas R Schreiner Works will provide evidence that one actually has been saved James D G Dunn Works will provide the criterion by which Christ will determine eternal destiny of his people Michael P Barber Works will merit eternal life This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Sinners, Works of Law, and Transgression in Gal 2:14b-21 Nicolai Techow, 2024-01-30 In this study of the flow of thought in Paul's speech to Cephas Gal 2 14b 21 Nicolai Techow explains the passage as a linear and unified argument centered on God's judgment of people in the cross of Christ as integral to justification He argues for a primarily moral religious meaning of sinfulness and works of law

Reforming the Christian Faith Mark W. Karlberg, 2017-10-12 Central to the mission of the church with each passing generation is the elucidation of the gospel of Christ which is the heart of the Christian message Witness to God's saving word in Scripture comes in response to discussions and debates arising over the course of church history Our study highlights some of the unity and disunity found within the Reformed tradition Reformation and modern Beginning with the subject of the development of doctrine over the course of church history we take up the foundational issue of biblical hermeneutics the question of how we are to interpret the Bible The year 2017 marks the Protestant Church's 500th anniversary October 31 We consider secondly Protestantism's two leading theological principles the formal the doctrine of Scripture and the material the doctrine of justification by faith alone In the final section we critique departures from the teaching of historic federalism found within contemporary Reformed orthodoxy which strikes at the very heart of what it means to be Reformed in theology Crucial in this long standing and ongoing dispute is the interpretation of the Mosaic Covenant as in some sense a republication of the original Covenant of Works with Adam at creation Covenant and justification are the focal doctrines under study

Recovering the Evangelical Sacrament Anthony R. Cross,2012-12-06 The subject of baptism continues to be of considerable interest though it frequently appears within broader studies of sacraments liturgy worship and ecumenical studies and within confessional bounds credobaptist or paedobaptist yet it is rarely discussed by Evangelicals This book however is neither an apologetic for credobaptism nor paedobaptism rather Cross believes that as practiced today both forms are a departure from New Testament baptism which he maintains was an integral part of becoming a Christian and part of the proclaimed gospel He argues that the one baptism of Ephesians 4 5 is conversion baptism and that the baptism referred to in the various New Testament strata refers to this one baptism of Spirit and water The study sets out the case for this interpretation and contends that in key passages baptism is an example of synecdoche The case is then made for a sacramental interpretation of baptism from a thoroughgoing Evangelical perspective Cross concludes with reflections on the necessity of baptismal reform and the relevance of a return to conversion baptism for the contemporary church in a post Christian post Christendom mission setting 40 Questions about Christians and Biblical Law Thomas R.

Schreiner,2010-10-08 This volume by Dr Thomas R Schreiner on the interplaybetween Christianity and biblical law is an excellent addition to the 40Questions Answers series Schreiner not only coherently answers the toughquestions that flow from a discussion about the Old Testament Levitical Law but also writes clearly and engagingly for the student The pastor student and layperson can easily understand Schreiner s biblical theology of the Law Back to Faith , The New Perspective on Paul James D.G. Dunn,2008 The New Perspective on Paul By author James D G Dunn published on January 2008 by James D G Dunn 2008 Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg,2006-10-15 More than any other theological tradition Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable indeed Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation the middle of the seventeenth century it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel Grace The Modern day Controversy The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to loose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction From the Preface

Judgment According to Works in Romans Kevin W. McFadden, 2013-10-01 Kevin W. McFadden shows that Paul wrote the letter to remind Roman Christians of his gospel because of his vocation as apostle to the Gentiles The letter simultaneously demonstrates the guilt of the world and calls Paul's audience to live out the implications of the gospel The theme of judgment thus appears in two distinct ways Paul opposes justification by works of law but simultaneously affirms as did most of the early Christian movement McFadden argues a final judgment according to works These are not contradictory observations but belong together in a cohesive understanding of Paul's theology and of his purpose in the letter
