Mistlberger, 2012-05-25 We live in the Golden Age of publishing for spiritual esoteric and new age books of all conceivable stripes and then there is the Internet Amongst this wild proliferation of available information there has occurred a cheapening effect in which many teachings have been watered down to make them palatable for a public with diminishing attention spans and suffering from information overload For the sincere spiritual seeker there needs to be an awareness of the various ways we can go astray on the path or fall off the path altogether The whole idea of spirituality is to be awake yet it is all too easy to simply end up in yet another dream world thinking that we have found some higher truth Rude Awakening Perils Pitfalls and Hard Truths of the Spiritual Path is dedicated to examining under a sharp light the many ways our spiritual development goes wrong or disappears altogether in the sheer crush of books and the routine grind of daily life Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1990 It So Happened That Ramesh S. Balsekar, Wayne Liquorman, 1992-01-01 A worthy successor to I AM THAT Ramesh's most accessible and easy to understand book An excellent place to start or end your search It is highly recommended both for the newcomer to Advaita and the more knowledgeable student of the subject I Am That Nisargadatta Maharaj, 2016-08-08 Back cover This collection of the timeless teachings of one of the greatest sages of India Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj is a testament to the uniqueness of the seer's life and work and is regarded by many as a modern spiritual classic I Am That first published in 1973 continues to draw new audiences and to enlighten seekers anxious for self realization Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj was a teacher who did not propound any ideology or religion but gently unwrapped the mystery of the self His message was simple direct and sublime I Am That preserves his dialogs with the followers who came from around the world seeking guidance in destroying false identities The sage's sole concern was with the human suffering and the ending of suffering It was his mission to guide the individual to an understanding of his true nature and the timelessness of being He taught that the mind must recognize and penetrate its own state of being not being this or that here or there then or now but just timeless being A simple man Maharaj was a householder and petty storekeeper in Bombay where he lived and died in 1981 at the age of 84 He had not been educated formally but came to be respected and loved for his insights into the crux of human pain and for the extraordinary lucidity of his direct disclosure Hundreds of diverse seekers traveled the globe and sought him out in his unpretentious home in Bombay now Mumbai to hear him To all of them he gave hope that beyond the real experience is not the mind but the self the light in which everything appears the awareness in which everything happens In the humble abode of Sri Nisargadatta Maharaj but for the electric lights and the noises of the street traffic one would not know in which period of human history one dwells There is an atmosphere of timelessness about his tiny room the subjects discussed are timeless valid for all times the way they are expounded and examined is also timeless the centuries millennia and yugas fall off and one deals with matters immensely ancient and eternally new The discussions held and teachings given would have been the same ten thousand years ago and will be the same ten thousand years hence There will always be conscious beings wondering about the fact of their being conscious and enquiring into its cause and aim Whence am I Who am I Whither am I Such questions have no beginning and no end And it is crucial to know the answers for without a full understanding of oneself both in time and in timelessness life is but a dream imposed on us by powers we do not know for purposes we cannot grasp I Am That is a legacy from a unique teacher who helps the reader to a clearer understanding of himself as he comes to Maharaj with the age old question Who am I Seekers were never turned away from the humble abode of Maharaj during his life and can still find their answers to this timeless question in the pages of this book today Lamp of Non-Dual

Knowledge & Cream of Liberation Swami Hariharānandasarasvatī,2003-09-06 The spiritual tradition of India known as Advaita Vedanta is one of the most profound visions of the Absolute known to man Its message speaks to the heart of freedom it teaches that liberation is found only in the realization of God and that the deepest happiness is the knowledge of the essential identity between the soul and God Advaita Bodha Deepika Lamp of Non Dual Knowledge and Kaivalya Navaneeta Cream of Liberation are two gems taken from the crown of that great tradition The content of both represents a distillation of the soul of Hinduism Opening their pages the reader is transported back in time to a grassy spot under a shady tree outside a temple in south India to overhear conversations between master and disciple concerning the most important questions of human existence Many people have found that Lamp of Non Dual Knowledge is the clearest easiest to understand summary of Advaita Vedanta It is in the form of a dialogue between a seeker and his spiritual master with the seeker posing many probing questions about the nature of existence the universe and humankind Cream of Liberation is a widely known Advaita classic and outlines the basic philosophical principles in a very clear way again in the form of a dialogue between master and devotee Among all of the explicitly formulated metaphysical doctrines found in the religions of the world Advaita Vedanta is one of the most complete and clearly articulated These two short classics largely unknown in the West presented in a single volume provide an excellent introduction for the reader who wishes to drink from the stream of that transforming wisdom which Hindus call sanatana dharma eternal religion This is the underlying religion which has guided and illuminated countless souls since the Vedic period began some twelve hundred years before the birth of Christ

Advaita et Bouddha Ramesh S. Balsekar,2024-06-06 The Perfume of Silence Francis Lucille,2006-07-01 This book is about enlightenment spiritual awakening self realization meditation awareness consciousness happiness love relationships psychological suffering and human predicament Based largely on actual dialogues between Francis Lucille a spiritual teacher of non duality and some of his disciples the music of freedom that it conveys resonates between the words and gives the reader an inkling of the peace and happiness that are experienced in the presence of an authentic master Francis Lucille was for over twenty years a close friend and disciple of Jean Klein a well recognized French teacher of non duality They both belong to a lineage of Advaita Vedanta teachers stemming from India Advaita Vedanta is the main nondualist Hindu spiritual tradition Jean Klein s guru Pandit Veeraraghavachar was a Professor at the Sanskrit College in Bangalore Their teachings despite some superficial similarities are quite different from those of most contemporary western neo Advaita teachers They emphasize for instance the importance of the direct transmission from guru to disciple through presence beyond words and they recognize that the same universal truth was expressed by various saints philosophers and teachers throughout history and across the world That which matters here is not the form of the teaching direct or gradual for instance as much as the authenticity of the teacher the vibrancy of his realization the outpouring of his love the freedom of his humour the brilliancy of his intelligence the splendor of his poetry the spontaneous sharing of his peace Nonduality is the common ground of Buddhism especially Zen and Dzogchen Advaita Sufism Taoism the Kabbalah the Gnosis and the teachings of Jesus in the Thomas Gospel the teachings of Parmenides Plotinus Gaudapada Abinavagupta Meister Eckhart Ramana Maharshi Atmananda Krishna Menon Ananda Mai and many others
