Toast The Story Of A Boys Hunger:

Toast Nigel Slater, 2005-10-06 Toast is Nigel Slater's truly extraordinary story of a childhood remembered through food. In each chapter as he takes readers on a tour of the contents of his family's pantry: rice pudding, tinned ham, cream soda, mince pies, lemon drops, bourbon biscuits, we are transported. His mother was a chops and peas sort of cook, exasperated by the highs and lows of a temperamental stove, a finicky little son, and the asthma that was to prove fatal. His father was a honey and crumpets man with an unpredictable temper. When Nigel's widowed father takes on a housekeeper with social aspirations and a talent in the kitchen, the following years become a heartbreaking cooking contest for his father's affections. But as he slowly loses the battle, Nigel finds a new outlet for his culinary talents, and we witness the birth of what was to become a lifelong passion for food. Nigel's likes and dislikes, aversions and sweet-toothed weaknesses form a fascinating backdrop to this exceptionally moving memoir of childhood, adolescence, and sexual awakening. A bestseller, more than 300,000 copies sold, and award winner in the UK, Toast is sure to delight both foodies and memoir readers on this side of the pond, especially those who made such enormous successes of Ruth Reichl's Tender at the Bone and Anthony Bourdain's Kitchen Confidential. We Laugh, We Cry, We Cook Becky Johnson, Rachel Randolph, 2013-08-06 Becky Johnson and her daughter Rachel Randolph come from a long line of laughter. The female side of her family tree is dotted with funny storytellers, prolific authors, hospitable home cooks, and champion chatters. In We Love We Laugh We Cook, Becky, a butter and bacon loving mama, and Rachel, a vegan bean eating daughter, share stories of their crazy, wonderful, and sometimes challenging lives. As Rachel becomes a mother herself, Becky is messy, Rachel craves order, Becky forgets what month it is, Rachel is an organizational genius. At least before baby arrives. Sprinkled throughout are the lip-smacking, nourishing recipes they love to make and share. From food for a family reunion of thirty to lunch for a party of one in a high chair to a hot meal for a sick friend, the authors demonstrate grace, acceptance, and love to others through the bonding gifts of humor, attentive listening, and cooking, whether diners prefer beef or tofu in their stew.

Domestic Imaginaries Bex Harper, Hollie Price, 2017-11-24 This book examines representations of home in literary and visual cultures in the 20th and 21st centuries. The collection brings together scholars working on literature, film, and photography with the aim of showcasing new research in a burgeoning field focusing on representations of domesticity. The chapters span a diverse range of contexts from across the world and use a variety of approaches to exploring representations of home, including studies of space, material culture, sexuality, gender, multiculturalism, diaspora, memory, and archival practice. They include explorations of the Finnish Suburban home on film, home and the diasporic imagination in Chinese Canadian women's writing, and the archiving practices and photographs used to document the homes of two gay writers from Australia and New Zealand. By bringing together this range of approaches and subjects, the book explores domestic imaginaries as part of a multi-faceted, mutable, and amorphous conception of home in a modern world context. This collection therefore seeks to further studies of home by investigating how
