The Big Book of Car Culture Jim Hinckley, Jon G. Robinson, 2005 With the powerful rhythmic sounds of Aboriginal English and Kokatha language woven through the narrative Mazin Grace is the inspirational story of a feisty girl who refuses to be told who she is determined to uncover the truth for herself Growing up on the Mission isn t easy for clever Grace Oldman When her classmates tease her for not having a father she doesn't know what to say Pappa Neddy says her dad is the Lord God in Heaven but that doesn't help when the Mission kids call her a bastard As Grace slowly pieces together clues that might lead to answers she struggles to find a place in a community that rejects her for reasons she doesn't understand In this novel author Dylan Coleman fictionalizes her mother's childhood at the Koonibba Lutheran Mission in South Australia in the 1940s and 1950s

K. C. Cop Bob Hartman, 2019-03-31 These short stories are actual events in which I was personally involved They occurred between 1982 and 1995 while I was serving as a police officer and detective in the bomb and arson unit homicide unit and burglary and auto theft units with KCPD These incidents are taken from my memory of the events as they took place They are not in any way meant to hurt or cause discredit to anyone or anyplace described or resembled in these stories I wish to make it known that my personal comments in each story may be a little on the redneck side but they are not meant to be racist or sexist but humorous Even though most police officers humor is sometimes considered sick and different from that of other people we use this humor as a tool to handle the many mental stresses we deal with each day
