VENICE AGAINST THE SEA

A CITY BESIEGED

"John Keahey deftly sorts out the science, the politics, the big money, and the squabbles and intrigues involved in the desperate efforts to save Venice."

Venice Against The Sea A City Besieged:

Venice Against the Sea John Keahey, 2002-03-20 Venice is sinking six feet over the past 1 000 years The reasons for this are many Although there is a natural geologic tendency for some sinking humans have exacerbated the problem by exploiting on a massive scale underground water resources for industrial purposes Coupled with these events and perhaps most significant are climatic changes all over the globe The heating of the atmosphere after the last ice age dramatically speeded up by humans has led to a steady continuing rise in sea level This global warming is likely to persist beyond human control for hundreds if not thousands of years Venetians other Italians and many in the world community are locked in debate over Venice s plight Venice Against the Sea explains how the city and its 177 canals were built and what has led up to this long foreseen crisis It explores the various options currently being considered for solving this problem and chronicles the ongoing debate among scientists engineers and politicians about the pros and cons of each potential solution Through extensive research and interviews award winning journalist John Keahey has written the definitive book on this fascinating problem No matter what the experts decide to do one thing is for certain Venice s art its buildings and its history are too important to the planet s cultural identity to let it slip beneath the rising waters of the Adriatic Handbook of Regenerative Landscape Design Robert L. France, 2007-10-18 What if environmentally damaged landscapes could not only be remediated from an ecological standpoint but also designed to replenish an entire community as well as the nature surrounding it The Handbook of Regenerative Landscape Design incorporates ecology engineering sociology and design elements into a new paradigm for environmental r Globalization and International Development H.E. Baber, Denise Dimon, 2013-08-19 This new anthology offers a wide selection of readings addressing the contemporary moral issues that arise from the division between the Global North and South the problem of the color line that W E B Du Bois identified at the beginning of the twentieth century and which on a scale that Du Bois could not have foreseen is the problem of the twenty first The book is interdisciplinary in scope In addition to standard topical essays in ethical theory by philosophers such as Anthony Appiah Martha Nussbaum and Peter Singer it contains essays from economists such as Amartya Sen Joseph Stiglitz and Thomas DeGregori as well as current empirical data from the World Bank IMF United Nations and other sources Earthly Engagements Matthew C. Ally, Damon Boria, 2023-03-16 Earthly Engagements Reading Sartre after the Holocene brings together scholars from the Sartre studies community to think through the planetary ecological crisis Edited by Matthew C Ally and Damon Boria the collection explores ways in which Sartre s existential thought can be read socio ecologically illuminating the tightly imbricated earthly and worldly crises of our post Holocene epoch Contributors variously discuss phenomenology ethics politics ontology and metaphysics Earthly locations include the Icelandic coast the Minnesota woods the Indiana Dunes the Chinese Great Plain the Venetian Lagoon and more worldly situations include that of the artist the activist the consumer the tourist and more Through their diversity of methods and substantive concerns the chapters reveal a wealth of critical and heuristic resources within Sartre's thought for thinking through and engaging the planetary ecological crisis and its direct ties to global social economic and political crises In full recognition of Sartre's personal distaste for agrarian settings and wilderness and some ostensibly anti environmental philosophical and literary moments the contributors take the proper Sartrean line that how we view nature and our relationship to nature is neither closed nor predetermined Like life itself our worldly relationship to earthly nature is rooted in the sufficiency and open endedness of freedom The Publishers Weekly, 2002 Life on Earth [2 volumes] Niles Eldredge, 2002 An examination of nature's extraordinary biological diversity and the human activities that threaten it Book Review Digest, 2002 Encyclopedia of Global Warming Steven I.
