

The background of the slide is a historical painting, likely by Giovanni Battista Tiepolo, showing a Venetian galley in the Venetian Arsenal. The galley is a large, ornate wooden ship with multiple masts and sails, filled with soldiers and rowers. It is surrounded by other smaller boats and structures in the water. The top of the image features three portraits of Ottoman sultans, each wearing a white turban and a colorful robe, set against a golden background with circular medallions. The title 'Venice and the Islamic World' is written in a large, white, serif font across the center of the image, with the dates '828-1797' below it.
