Venice (Classic Reprint) Mortimer Menpes, 2018-05-03 Excerpt from Venice There is no city more written about more painted and more misrepresented than Venice Students poets and painters have combined in reproducing her many charms Usually however Venice is described in a hurried careless way the subject is seldom gone deeply into and studied as it should be before attempting to compile a book It is only one who has been there and observed the life and characteristics of the people for years who can gain any true perception of their character Those who have not been to Venice must needs know by heart her attractions which have been so persistently thrust before the public but unless half a dozen really excellent books have been read concerning her the city of their imaginations must be a theatrical Venice unreal and altogether false About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
