Twentieth Century China New Approaches Rewriting Histories:

Twentieth-Century China Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom, 2013-10-14 Twentieth Century China New Approaches is an important revisionist study of China's recent past. The chapters throw light on a variety of subjects within the field which has recently undergone considerable change. The three major parts of this reader take into account the historical shape of the century, local perspectives on national history and reflections on cultural history. The chapters in this volume reflect a move away from a Western-centred analysis of Chinese history as well as the new wealth of archival material made accessible over the last decade. They highlight in challenging ways important topics that have generated considerable excitement among historians. Subjects discussed include the watershed date of 1949, feminism, the revolutions, the discourse of the communist party and political theatre in modern China. Legacies of World War II in South and East Asia David Koh Wee Hock, 2007 Illustrates how the political and social fallout from the World War II is still alive and divisive in South and East Asia.

Practicing History Gabrielle M. Spiegel, 2005 This essential new collection of key articles from critical thinkers and practicing historians focuses on where history is now in terms of its theory and practice. For students, teachers and historians alike, this is an indispensable reader. Medieval Religion Constance H. Berman, 2005 Constance Hoffman Berman presents an indispensable collection of the most influential and revisionist work to be done on religion in the Middle Ages in the last two decades. Bringing together an authoritative list of scholars from around the world, this book is a comprehensive compilation of the most important work in this field. Medieval Religion provides a valuable service for all those who study the Middle Ages, church history or religion. Revolutionary Russia Rex A. Wade, 2004-07-31 This collection presents the major recent writings on the Russian Revolution and its context. It brings together key texts to illustrate new interpretive approaches and covers the central topics and themes. Together, the chapters in this volume form a coherent representation of both the events and the theories and debates that relate to them. Feng Youlan and Twentieth Century China Xiaoqing Diana Lin, 2016-02-02 This is an intellectual biography of Feng Youlan. Feng Yu-lan (1895-1990) one of the preeminent Chinese philosophers of the 20th century. Feng's life very well captured the vicissitudes of twentieth-century Chinese politics and scholarship. He made his name in the 1930s and 40s with a path-breaking approach to Chinese philosophy. And he was one of the few prominent pre-1949 non-Communist Chinese scholars who attempted to influence Chinese society with prolific publications. After 1949, this monograph explores Feng Youlan's work and the trajectory of changes in Feng's philosophical outlook against the social and political contexts of Feng's life from the 1920s to 1990. Feng's search for a framework of Chinese philosophy that is open and connected to foreign learning and a framework of self-cultivation that is open to outside ideas continues to be important goals for Chinese philosophy today. The French Revolution Gary Kates, 2006 Collating key texts at the forefront of new research and interpretation, this updated second edition adds new articles on the Terror and race, colonial issues and studies all aspects of this major event from its origins through to its consequences. Haitian History

Alyssa Goldstein Sepinwall, 2013 Despite Haiti's proximity to the United States and its considerable importance to our own history Haiti barely registered in the historic consciousness of most Americans until recently Those who struggled to understand Haiti's suffering in the earthquake of 2010 often spoke of it as the poorest country in the Western hemisphere but could not explain how it came to be so In recent years the amount of scholarship about the island has increased dramatically Whereas once this scholarship was focused on Haiti's political or military leaders now the historiography of Haiti features lively debates and different schools of thought Even as this body of knowledge has developed it has been hard for students to grasp its various strands Haitian History presents the best of the recent articles on Haitian history by both Haitian and foreign scholars moving from colonial Saint Domingue to the aftermath of the 2010 earthquake It will be the go to one volume introduction to the field of Haitian history helping to explain how the promise of the Haitian Revolution dissipated and presenting the major debates and questions in the field today Origins of the Black Atlantic Laurent Dubois, Julius S. Scott, 2013-01-11 Between 1492 and 1820 about two thirds of the people who crossed the Atlantic to the Americas were Africans With the exception of the Spanish all the European empires settled more Africans in the New World than they did Europeans The vast majority of these enslaved men and women worked on plantations and their labor was the foundation for the expansion of the Atlantic economy during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Until relatively recently comparatively little attention was paid to the perspectives daily experiences hopes and especially the political ideas of the enslaved who played such a central role in the making of the Atlantic world Over the past decades however huge strides have been made in the study of the history of slavery and emancipation in the Atlantic world This collection brings together some of the key contributions to this growing body of scholarship showing a range of methodological approaches that can be used to understand and reconstruct the lives of these enslaved people China Review International, 2004

The Alter Ego Perspectives of Literary Historiography Min Wang, 2013-07-05 This book mainly discusses about the alter ego perspectives in literary historiography This comparative analysis of the major Chinese literary histories in China and in the West brings to light the alter ego perspectives of Stephen Owen in literary historiography The most interesting part of the book will be the interpretation of new notions and perspectives proposed by Stephen Owen especially in the newly published The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature 2010 This book gives a detailed overview about the different stages of writing Chinese literary history and the different modes of literary historiography in China and in the West Two case studies of Chinese poems are made on the notion of discursive communities and the Cultural Tang Readers will have a better understanding about the paradigm of literary historiography and the interrelationships between the different modes of literary historiography and the intellectual history Origins of the Cold War Melvyn P. Leffler, 2005 This second edition brings the collection up to date including the newest research from the Communist side of the Cold War and the most recent debates on culture race and intelligence Inventing China through History Q. Edward Wang, 2001-01-01 A critical examination of the rise of national history in early twentieth century China Reinventing Modern China Huaiyin Li, 2012-10-31 This work offers the first systematic analysis of writings on modern Chinese history by historians in China from the early twentieth century to the present It traces the construction of major interpretive schemes the evolution of dominant historical narratives and the unfolding of debates on the most controversial issues in different periods Placing history writing in the context of political rivalry and ideological contestation Huaiyin Li explicates how the historians dedication to faithfully reconstructing the past was compromised by their commitment to an imagined trajectory of history that fit their present day agenda and served their needs of political legitimation Beginning with an examination of the contrasting narratives of revolution and modernization in the Republican period the book scrutinizes changes in the revolutionary historiography after 1949 including its disciplinization in the 1950s and early 1960s and radicalization in the rest of the Mao era It further investigates the rise of the modernization paradigm in the reform era the crises of master narratives since the late 1990s and the latest development of the field Central to the author s analysis is the issue of truth and falsehood in historical representation Li contends that both the revolutionary and modernization historiographies before 1949 reflected historians lived experiences and contained a degree of authenticity in mirroring the historical processes of their own times In sharp contrast both the revolutionary historiography of the Maoist era and the modernization historiography of the reform era were primarily products of historians ideological commitment which distorted and concealed the past no less than revealed it In search of a more effective approach to rewriting modern Chinese history Reinventing Modern China proposes a within time open ended perspective which allows for different directions in interpreting the events in modern China and views modern Chinese history as an unfinished process remaining to be defined as the country entered the twenty first century From Roman Provinces to Medieval Kingdoms Thomas F.X. Noble, 2006-04-07 This is a prestigious collection of revisionist thinking on the key question of how did the middle ages begin Including a wealth of material on the origins of the Barbarian people and their tribes and a clear introduction to each section this is an invaluable student reference Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer, 2019-10-28 This updated edition of Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why This essential text explains how to organize curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes as well as student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters feature lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps This new edition includes connections to the C3 framework updates throughout to account for the many shifts in global politics and a new chapter connecting past to present through current events and historical studies in ways that engage students and propel civic activism Offering an alternative to pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate on what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it Cinema and Desire Jing Wang, Tani E.
