Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management Shava, Elvin, Ndebele, Nduduzo, 2024-07-10 The advent of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR has created a pressing need for digital transformation in human resources management HRM in public institutions Traditional practices must be updated preventing institutions from effectively managing their workforce and meeting stakeholder demands The lack of digitalization leads to inefficiencies ineffective performance evaluation and an inability to adapt to the rapidly evolving technological landscape This gap between existing HR practices and the demands of the digital age poses a significant challenge for public sector organizations Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management offers a comprehensive solution to the challenges faced by public institutions The book provides practical insights and strategies for aligning HR practices with the modern technological landscape by exploring how digital transformation can revolutionize HRM processes It demonstrates the benefits of adopting digital technologies and innovative strategies in public sector HRM through real world examples and case studies The book guides public sector professionals policymakers and academics helping them navigate the complexities of digital transformation in HRM

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners

Key Themes in Energy Management Akilu Yunusa-Kaltungo, 2024-07-29 This book provides a comprehensive global coverage of energy management as it relates mostly to developing countries In an era of unprecedented global population growth the demand for energy has reached staggering levels The United Nations reported an enormous 200% increase in population between 1950 and 2020 with projections indicating a further rise to 10.9 billion by 2100 As a direct consequence global primary energy usage has surged from 3701 Mtoe in 1965 to 13511 Mtoe in 2017 putting immense strain on existing energy sources If current growth rates persist these sources could be depleted within a mere 130 years To address this impending crisis governments worldwide have implemented regulations and incentives to promote energy conservation While numerous studies and publications have emerged within the field of energy management there remains a significant research gap particularly concerning the energy challenges faced by developing countries

Existing edited books on energy related topics often narrowly focus on specific aspects hindering readers from gaining a holistic understanding of energy management challenges and potential solutions This book fills this void Recognizing the pivotal role these nations play in achieving sustainable development goals this book provides a wide ranging perspective on the trends challenges and potential solutions to energy crises in these regions It not only acknowledges the challenges faced by developing countries but also offers viable strategies to address them The editor leveraging his successful leadership experience in global academic endeavors including publishing a book on Occupational Safety Health practices during the COVID 19 era and coordination of multinational research projects is well positioned to bring together exceptional chapters from various countries His extensive network ensures the inclusion of diverse perspectives enriching the book s content and offering invaluable insights to readers Designed for a broad readership including energy industry organizations professionals researchers government bodies policymakers and students this book delves into a wide array of energy management issues By facilitating a comprehensive understanding of the subject it equips readers with the knowledge and tools necessary to navigate the complex landscape of energy management in the modern world

A scholarly contribution to educational praxis M.A. Mokoena,J.M. (Ona) Janse van Rensburg,M. Erasmus,E. Mentz,C.B. Zulu,A. Cronje,E.K. Materechera,W.T. Dudu,A.T. Kanyimba,S.P. Raath,C. Kruger,A. Loubser,A.E. Pienaar,A. Kloppe,S. Ellis,N.T. Petersen,J. de Beer,J. Varughese,A. Seugnet Blignaut,C. Els,2016-12-31 This publication contains original research targeting scientific specialists in the field of education through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature

Locating Social Justice in Higher Education Research Jan McArthur,Paul Ashwin,2020-03-19 This book focuses on the relations between social justice and higher education research Jan McArthur and Paul Ashwin bring together chapters from international researchers that explore these relations in a range of national contexts and consider their implications for policies pedagogy and our understanding of the roles of graduates in societies As a whole the book argues that social justice needs to be more than a topic of higher education research and must also be part of the way that research is undertaken Social justice must be located in research practices as well as in the issues that are researched

Remembering the Holocaust in a Racial State Roni Mikel-Arieli, 2022-07-18 The lens of apartheid era Jewish commemorations of the Holocaust in South Africa reveals the fascinating transformation of a diasporic community Through the prism of Holocaust memory this book examines South African Jewry and its ambivalent position as a minority within the privileged white minority Grounded in research in over a dozen archives the book provides a rich empirical account of the centrality of Holocaust memorialization to the community's ongoing struggle against global and local antisemitism Most of the chapters focus on white perceptions of the Holocaust and reveals the tensions between the white communities in the country regarding the place of collective memories of suffering in the public arena However the book also moves beyond an insular focus on the South African Jewish community and in very different modality investigates prominent figures in the anti-apartheid struggle and the role of Holocaust memory in their fascinating journeys towards freedom Transformative

Innovation for Sustainable Human Settlements Andrew Emmanuel Okem, Sithembiso Lindelihle Myeni, Tshepang Mosiea, 2024-11-18 This book uses the transformative innovation policy TIP as a lens to show how innovative processes practices and systems could address critical challenges and facilitate the delivery of sustainable human settlements in South Africa The TIP approach shows that addressing societal problems is not a function of a technical solution within a government department but one that requires partnership with multiple stakeholders The book argues that it is essential to understand and embrace innovation policy that is transformative and responds to the social and environmental needs at local provincial and national levels It demonstrates that innovation policy should focus on transforming the socio technical systems that demand embracing notions such as experimental delivery and learning directionality and inclusivity Chapters explore the ability of the state to transform its organisational processes and capacity to improve and align its planning implementation monitoring and evaluation systems to high levels of efficiency and sustainability targets Bringing together various theoretical and empirical perspectives on innovation in the context of sustainable human settlement this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of Housing Human Settlements Architecture Public Policy Development Studies Civil Engineering Political Science and Public Administration
