Mou, 2020-04-02 Drawing on insights from the author s own empirical data obtained from systematic observation of the daily routines within Chinese criminal justice institutions this ground breaking book examines the functional deficiency of the criminal justice system in preventing innocent individuals from being wrongly accused and convicted Set within a broad socio legal context it outlines the strategic interrelationships between key legal actors the deep seated legal culture embedded in practice the deficiency of integrity of the system and the structural injustices that follow The author traces criminal case files in the criminal process how they are constructed scrutinised and used to dispose of cases and convict defendants in lieu of witnesses oral testimony This book illustrates that the Chinese criminal justice system as a state apparatus of social control has been framed through performance indicators bureaucratic management and the central value of collectivism in such a way as to maintain the stability of the authoritarian power The Construction of Guilt in China will appeal to academics researchers policy advisers and practitioners working in the areas of criminal law comparative criminal justice criminology and Chinese studies Winner of the 2020 SLS Peter Birks Prize for Outstanding Legal Scholarship Craft Production in the Western Zhou Dynasty (1046-771BC) Zhouyong Sun, 2008 This work investigates the craft production system in the Western Zhou China through a case study of a jue earrings workshop at Qijia in the predynastic capital site of Zhouyuan excavated in 2002 2003 Conclusions are drawn from several lines of evidence including spatial relationships of material remains in archaeological context various stages of jue production wasters the author s experimental replication of jue manufacture and written texts and bronze inscriptions
