Mediascapes of Ruined Geographies in the Global South Diego Granja do Amaral,A. Chukwudumebi Obute,2023-08-15

This book undertakes an interdisciplinary and cross cultural interrogation of the Global South through the prisms of media and cultural studies It closely explores the quotidian re territorialization and brazen ruination of the material geographies of this vast expanse of the world by forces and proxies of neo colonialism and global capitalism of resource extraction We cite the ongoing expulsion of Palestinians from their homelands by occupational forces the emerging detritus dump across Mexico City and Lagos the infrastructural precariousness of the favelas of Brazil the unending resource war in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC and the flagrant operation of the oil industry in the Niger Delta region of Nigeria as examples of this geographic cataclysm The centripetal forces of neo colonialism and resource extraction at full flight in the Global South aided by toxic hegemonic forces have overtly tossed some of the population to the peripheries of existence and the society at large As such this book additionally explores the resistance of the subalterns from the margins to this socio political malaise and further unmasks the knowledge production from these margins of the Global South This project is divided into five 5 parts of three essays each The first part examines the territorial contestation in the Middle East framed and expressed through films and literary lenses The second part examines the environmental burden of modern consumerism and urbanization on metropolis across Mexico Brazil and Nigeria while the third part explores the attritional violence of resource extraction in the DRC Brazil and Nigeria via filmic and journalistic lenses The fourth part offers a swift response from the margins through ethnographic and journalistic interrogation of the subjectivity of the subalterns of Brazilian favelas and street artists The fifth part offers an engaging critique of the political climates of South Africa and Brazil that reinforce the environmental catastrophe of the regions of the world Greek Tragedy and the Middle East Pauline

Donizeau,Yassaman Khajehi,Daniela Potenza,2024-03-07 Employing the idea of interculturality to study Middle Eastern adaptations of Greek tragedy from the turn of 20th century until the present day this book first explores the earlier phase of the development of Greek classical reception in Middle Eastern theatre It then moves to focus on modern Arabic Persian and Turkish adaptations of Greek tragedy both in the early post colonial and contemporary periods in the MENA and in Europe Case by case this book examines how the classical sources are reworked and adapted as well as how they engage with interculturality hybridisation and the circulation of aesthetics and models At the same time it explores the implications and consequences of expressing socio political concerns through classical Greek sources While Muslim thinkers and translators introduced Greek philosophy in particular Aristotle s Poetics to the West in the Middle Ages adaptations of Greek tragedies only appeared in the MENA region at the very beginning of the 20th century For this reason the development of Greek tragedy in the Middle East is difficult to disentangle from colonialism and cultural imperialism Encompassing language differences and offering for the first time a broad approach on the Middle Eastern reception of Greek tragedy this book produces a renewed focus on a fascinating aspect of the classical tradition
