Understanding An Afrocentric World View Introduction To Optimal Psychology:

Understanding an Afrocentric World View Linda James Myers, 1992-12-31 Understanding an Afrocentric World View Introduction to an Optimal Psychology stands as a groundbreaking and timeless classic in the field of Africana Studies Psychology and Human Development Its reverberating in depth analysis of and prescriptive cure for racism and other societal isms identifies the essential factors at their core and how to change them Dr Linda James Myers provides rare insights into social forces behind the systemic racism that have been with us for over 400 years Her time tested Optimal Conceptual Theory and its corollary psychotherapeutic strategies unearth the characteristics of the suboptimal mindset that keeps us trapped in the vicious pattern of oppressive injustice that is harmful to ourselves as well as others and its optimal alternative Unlike other treatise on the subject James Myers offers readers the tools and developmental processes for making the shift in consciousness needed for improving the quality of their own lives and for creating a just sacred and sustainable world Her comprehensive holistic and integrative approach reflects a Black cultural perspective seldom heard but proven effective and traceable to the beginnings of all human culture and civilization Afrocentric Visions Janice D.

Hamlet, 1998-09-14 In this timely volume editor Janice D Hamlet has chosen essays which illuminate various aspects of African American culture refracted through the lens of Afrocentric thought The book examines Afrocentric ideology and methodology Afrocentric approaches to the dynamics of communication the Afrocentric influence on the black aesthetic with an examination of language literature oral tradition movies and television and the future of Afrocentric visions Handbook of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Maulana Karenga, 2006 Publisher Description Re-Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2014-03-05 What kind of social studies knowledge can stimulate a critical and ethical dialog with the past and present Re Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning answers this question by explaining and illustrating a process of historical recovery that merges Afrocentric theory and principles of culturally informed curricular practice to reconnect multiple knowledge bases and experiences In the case studies presented K 12 practitioners teacher educators preservice teachers and parents use this praxis to produce and then study the use of democratized student texts they step outside of reproducing standard school experiences to engage in conscious inquiry about their shared present as a continuance of a shared past This volume exemplifies not only why instructional materials including most so called multicultural materials obstruct democratized knowledge but also takes the next step to construct and then study how re membered student texts can be used Case study findings reveal improved student outcomes enhanced relationships between teachers and families and teachers and students and a closer connection for children and adults to their heritage Justice for Marcus Garvey Julius Garvey, 2024-11-19 Join thought leaders fighting to win the posthumous pardon of Marcus Garvey one of the most influential figures in Black history Marcus Garvey 1887 1940 was a Black political activist journalist entrepreneur and orator who founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League which had a following of more than six million African descended people worldwide Despite his massive popularity this Jamaican born international leader was wrongfully sentenced to prison by the U S government on trumped up mail fraud charges While exoneration efforts began immediately and have continued since his sentencing a new groundswell movement for Garvey s posthumous pardon is underway led by his nonagenarian still spirited son Julius Garvey Edited by Julius Garvey Justice for Marcus Garvey is a collection of informative essays and personal narratives about the senior Garvey s life and work demonstrating his essential influence on current social justice movements The book features contributions from thought leaders and activists including a foreword by bestselling author Ta Nehisi Coates Contributors include Paul Coates founder director of Black Classic Press Goulda Downer president of the Caribbean American Political Action Committee C PAC Justin Hansford professor at Howard University School of Law and Maulana Karenga widely known as the creator of the holiday Kwanzaa Justice for Marcus Garvey is a tribute and rallying cry for one of the preeminent champions of Black pride and self determination

Black Male Violence in Perspective , P. Tony Jackson, 2015-05-08 Black Male Violence in Perspective Towards Afrocentric Intervention represents a synthesis of lived experience authoritative research and Afrocentric perspective on one of the most controversial topics of our day It examines violence by and among Black men as it is inextricably tied to its context the history of violence in America including colonialism expansionism and concepts of manifest destiny Acknowledging important concepts like Michelle Alexander s The New Jim Crow and Joy DeGruy Leary s Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome and chronicling the devastating and injurious effects of racism the text moves in a clinical direction It identifies and addresses the resulting dangerous triad of frustration anger and depression and how they come together clinically to impact young Black men resulting in violent outcomes It explores the psychology underlying violent behavior delving into the socioeconomic realities that are very much a part of the landscape of violence in America Tony Jackson utilizes cases from his career as a therapist as well as examples from actual life experience to illustrate challenging concepts More importantly Black Male Violence in Perspective proposes a theory of intervention and treatment with a discussion on quantitative and qualitative research methods

'Mixed Race' Studies Jayne O. Ifekwunigwe, 2015-03-24 Mixed race studies is one of the fastest growing as well as one of the most important and controversial areas in the field of race and ethnic relations Bringing together pioneering and controversial scholarship from both the social and the biological sciences as well as the humanities this reader charts the evolution of debates on race and mixed race from the nineteenth to the twenty first century The book is divided into three main sections tracing the origins miscegenation moral degeneracy and genetics mapping contemporary and foundational discourses mixed race identities politics and celebration debating definitions multiraciality census categories and critiques This collection adds a new dimension to the growing body of literature on the topic and provides a comprehensive history of the origins and directions of mixed race research as an intellectual movement For students of anthropology race and ethnicity it is an invaluable resource for examining the complexities and paradoxes of racial thinking across space time and disciplines Counseling African American Males Dr. William Ross, 2016-06-01 There is no one method for doing culturally alert counseling Instead culturally alert counseling consists of intentionally adapting existing ways to help clients 1 understand their socially constructed worldviews through culture 2 appreciate their various cultures 3 to make choices about adherence to cultural norms and 4 to recognize and respond to external bias relating to their cultural group membership Narrative Identities George Yancy, 2005 The contributors address challenging questions about identity in relation to personality development language and socialisation They demonstrate how their cultural and historical contexts influenced their theoretical approaches to the nature of self and how these ideas in turn shaped how they perceive their personal histories An Afrocentric Manifesto Molefi Kete Asante, 2013-05-08 Molefi Kete Asante's Afrocentric philosophy has become one of the most persistent influences in the social sciences and humanities over the past three decades It strives to create new forms of discourse about Africa and the African Diaspora impact on education through expanding curricula to be more inclusive change the language of social institutions to reflect a more holistic universe and revitalize conversations in Africa Europe and America about an African renaissance based on commitment to fundamental ideas of agency centeredness and cultural location In An Afrocentric Manifesto Molefi Kete Asante examines and explores the cultural perspective closest to the existential reality of African people in order to present an innovative interpretation on the modern issues confronting contemporary society Thus this book engages the major critiques of Afrocentricity defends the necessity for African people to view themselves as agents instead of as objects on the fringes of Europe and proposes a more democratic framework for human relationships An Afrocentric Manifesto completes Asante's quartet on Afrocentric theory It is at the cutting edge of this new paradigm with implications for all disciplines and fields of study It will be essential reading for urban studies philosophy African and African American Studies social work sociology political science and communication The Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination Jean Lau Chin, 2009-11-12 An updated and condensed version of the landmark work on the psychological impact of prejudice and discrimination Spanning four volumes the first edition of The Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination provided a much needed cornerstone work on one of the most crucial issues in the United States today This updated and condensed edition of the award winning set is a streamlined yet rich and insightful look at the mechanisms of prejudice and discrimination in practice Editor Jean Chin and contributors from across the nation offer insight into how discrimination in American society is rationalized and enacted as well as how it is experienced by diverse groups Coverage goes beyond racism to include sexism and the plight of LGBTQ youths as well as people with disabilities Updates include a new introduction and conclusion presenting developments successes and failures in fighting prejudice and discrimination since the original set was published

Handbook of African American Health Anthony J. Lemelle, Wornie Reed, Sandra Taylor, 2011-08-09 The U S Census Bureau reports particular demographic social and health conditions for African Americans Population wide the African American community has a higher mortality rate from cancer and diabetes than the rest of the population a higher infant mortality rate and a lower vaccination rate for influenza and pneumonia The contributions to this comprehensive Handbook of African American Health uncover the specific demographic conditions of the African American population and outline social interventions for both physical and mental health at the primary secondary and tertiary levels The 26 contributions to this comprehensive volume cover interventions for a diverse range of health problems including obesity and cardiovascular disease diabetes asthma and other respiratory diseases smoking alcohol and recreational drug abuse risky sexual behaviors cancer screening prevention and survivorship infant mortality community and interpersonal violence mental health From a healthcare standpoint it also examines specific interventions for treatment compliance health care access and community collaborations This volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers in medical sociology mental health studies public health health behavior and African American studies

The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participants in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader's Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references

The Womanist Idea Layli Maparyan, 2012-03-22 Following on the heels of The Womanist Reader The Womanist Idea offers a comprehensive systematic analysis of womanism including a detailed discussion of the womanist worldview cosmology ontology epistemology logic axiology and methodology and its implications for activism From a womanist perspective social and ecological change is necessarily undergirded by spirituality as distinct from religion per se which invokes a metaphysically informed approach to activism

African American Students' Career and College Readiness Jennifer R. Curry, M. Ann Shillingford, 2015-10-08 College and career readiness is essential to promoting the success of all students Educational and economic changes in today's society demands well thought out strategies for preparing students to survive academically socially and financially in the future African American students are at a disadvantage in this strategic planning process due to a long history of racism injustice and marginalization African American Students Career and College Readiness The Journey Unraveled explores the historical legal and socio political issues of education affecting African American students and their career and college readiness Each chapter has been written based on the authors experience and passion for the success of students in the African American population Some of the chapters will appear to be written in a more conversational and idiomatic tone whereas others are presented in a more erudite format Each chapter however presents a contextual portrayal of the contemporary and often dysfunctional pattern of society s approach to supporting this population Contributors also present progressive paradigms for future achievements Through the pages of this book readers will understand and hopefully appreciate what can be done to promote positive college bound self efficacy procurement of resources in the high school to college transition exposure and access to college possibilities and implications for practice in school counseling education leadership and higher education The Black Family Sadye

Logan,2018-05-04 With numerous selections designed to reinforce the goal of empowering clients to take charge of their lives this revised and updated second edition of The Black Family serves a two fold purpose It extends the small but growing body of strength oriented literature to include African American families and it serves as a natural extension of current texts on African American families to provide social workers and the education community with a broader framework for understanding the needs of Black families Offering both a research orientation and a practice perspective this book should appeal to social work educators and practitioners involved in family services health and mental health settings and child and public welfare Cultural Competence for Evaluators Mario A. Orlandi,1998-04 Examines the issue of cultural competence for program evaluators as it relates to African American Hispanic American Indian Alaska Native and Asian Pacific Islander American community groups The primary objective is to enhance the knowledge base and skills of professionals who are responsible for evaluating AOD abuse prevention programs in ethnic racial community settings Complementary chapters provide conceptual frameworks and practical suggestions for evaluators working with each of the ethnic racial groups concluding with a final overview of cultural competence Cultural Competence for Evaluators ,1992 Enacting

Intersectionality in Student Affairs Charmaine L. Wijeyesinghe,2017-03-29 While models of identity and student development have been essential tools for student affairs practitioners intersectionality has increasingly been recognized as an analytic framework that captures the complex interaction of social identities at the personal level and in larger social systems This volume demonstrates how intersectionality informs and enhances student affairs practice in the areas of student identity theory programming research coalition building residential life service learning international student services and strategic planning in significant and transformative ways It Provides multiple concrete examples of intersectional interventions and programs Evaluates the promises and challenges of implementing intersectionality in day to day practice and Describe how its core tenets enhance our understanding of resistance privilege and students responses to social justice education The contributors also wrestle with key questions that arise when we enact intersectionality in student affairs work such as whether the framework reflects the experiences of people from privileged social groups or what additional social categories should be considered when addressing identity from an intersectional perspective This is the 157th volume of this Jossey Bass higher education quarterly series An indispensable resource for vice presidents of student affairs deans of students student counselors and other student services professionals New Directions for Student Services offers guidelines and programs for aiding students in their total development emotional social physical and intellectual

Critical Race Studies Across Disciplines Jonathan Chism,David Ryden,Vida Robertson,Stacie Craft DeFreitas,2021-04-19 This book argues that critical race theory CRT which originated within Legal Studies during the 1970s has permeated multiple academic disciplines and informs the ethical commitments of scholars in diverse fields of study Critical Race Studies Across Disciplines includes essays by scholars of African American studies from various disciplines who directly and indirectly incorporate CRT through signaling a commitment to scholar activism or scholactivism Scholactivists hope to understand the roots of anti Black racism and to actively oppose all forms of oppression Drawing on CRT the volume counters the colorblind rhetoric of those who dismiss the notion of systemic racism discount racial inequities and disregard racial justice advocates as malcontents fanning the flames of racial dissension The contributors of this collection challenge racism centering the stories perspectives and counter narratives of African American soldiers teachers students writers psychologists and theologians who continually defy and resist oppression in myriad ways
