Whose Property The Deepening Conflict Between Private Property And Democracy In Canada:

Bridging the Global Divide on Human Rights: A Canada-China Dialogue Errol P. Mendes, Anik Lalonde-Roussy, 2019-06-26 This title was first published in 2003 In this collection of essays that explores Western and Chinese perspectives on human rights leading Canadian and Chinese scholars bridge the global divide on some of the key aspects of human rights Issues covered include the role of civil society in human rights protection the imperative of the rule of law in the protection of human rights freedom of expression and its relation to social economic and cultural development and corruption in the public and private sectors The volume also focuses on the domestic implementation of human rights treaties and offers gender perspectives on implementing social and economic rights in an era of globalization The independent Chinese and Canadian scholars present a new vision of global pluralism in the area of human rights protection in a modernizing China and in the rest of the world

Biotechnology and the Challenge of Property Remigius N. Nwabueze, 2016-04-15 Biotechnology and the Challenge of Property addresses the question of how the advancement of property law is capable of controlling the interests generated by the engineering of human tissues Through a comparative consideration of non Western societies and industrialized cultures this book addresses the impact of modern biotechnology and its legal accommodation on the customary conduct and traditional beliefs which shape the lives of different communities Nwabueze provides an introduction to the legal regulation of the evolving uses of human tissues and its implications for traditional knowledge beliefs and cultures

Unsettling the City Nicholas Blomley, 2004-06 Contemporary capitalism has produced gentrification socio spatial stratification and racial inequality In this book Nicholas Blomley shows how the concept of property helps to generate and underwrite these pervasive urban processes

Computers, Privacy and Data Protection: an Element of Choice Serge Gutwirth, Yves Pouillet, Paul De Hert, Ronald Leenes, 2011-02-26 This timely interdisciplinary work on current developments in ICT and privacy data protection coincides as it does with the rethinking of the Data Protection Directive the contentious debates on data sharing with the USA SWIFT PNR and the judicial and political resistance against data retention The authors of the contributions focus on particular and pertinent issues from the perspective of their different disciplines which range from the legal through sociology surveillance studies and technology assessment to computer sciences Such issues include cutting edge developments in the field of cloud computing ambient intelligence and PETs data retention PNR agreements property in personal data and the right to personal identity electronic road tolling HIV related information criminal records and teenager s online conduct to name but a few

Varieties of Austerity Whiteside, Heather, McBride, Stephen, 2021-05-03 Austerity is not always one size fits all it can be a flexible class based strategy taking several forms depending on the political economic forces and institutional characteristics present This important book identifies continuity and variety in crisis driven austerity restructuring across Canada Denmark Ireland and Spain In their analysis the authors focus on several components of austerity including fiscal and monetary policy budget narratives public sector reform labor market flexibilization and resistance In so doing they uncover how austerity can be categorized into different dynamic types and expose the economic social and political implications of the varieties of austerity Citizens and Nation Gerald Friesen,2000-04-28 Grandmother Andre told stories in front of a campfire Elizabeth Goudie wrote a memoir in school scribblers Phyllis Knight taped hours of interviews with her son Today s families rely on television and video cameras They are all making history In a different approach to that old issue the Canadian identity Gerald Friesen links the media studies of Harold Innis to the social history of recent decades The result is a framework for Canadian history as told by ordinary people Friesen suggests that the common peoples perceptions of time and space in what is now Canada changed with innovations in the dominant means of communication He defines four communication based epochs in Canadian history the oral traditional world of pre contact Aboriginal people the textual settler household of immigrants the print capitalism of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the screen capitalism that has emerged in the last few decades This analysis of communication is linked to distinctive political economies each of which incorporates its predecessors in an increasingly complex social order In each epoch using the new communication technologies people struggled to find the political means by which they could ensure that they and their households survived and if they were lucky prospered Canada is the sum of their endeavours Citizens and Nation demonstrates that it is possible to find meaning in the nation s past that will interest among others a new young and multicultural reading audience Whose Property? Roy Vogt,1999 Vogt shows that many diverse and contentious subjects including aboriginal struggles threats to the environment and the distribution of power in the workplace turn on the question of how property rights should be defined and distributed Land Wars John G. Francis,Leslie Francis,2003 It s my land I can do whatever I want with it This is our neighborhood or city or park and we should be the ones deciding how it s used These are two strongly held and diametrically opposed views of appropriate land use As John G and Leslie Pickering Francis demonstrate the debate about what to do with land is messy complex and often based on dangerously misguided principles Raising the question of what rights owners community as well as individual in fact have the Francises argue that land stewardship transcends narrow spatial definitions Their analysis of the discourse about property ownership offers a sophisticated much needed approach to land use policy The Anti-Capitalist Dictionary David E Lowes,2013-07-04 This dictionary is an alternative and a counter balance to the many political dictionaries that ignore or marginalize the history and influence of anti capitalist movements It paints a rich picture of the ideas and issues that inform today s anti capitalist activity The Anti Capitalist Dictionary is organised in an easily accessible alphabetical format with self contained cross referenced entries that introduce and explain concepts and issues that are integral to understanding today s global movement The Dictionary demonstrates how the meaning and relevance of some of these have evolved and illustrates a linkage between past and present activity that might be unfamiliar to people who are involved or interested in the movement s current manifestations This Dictionary has international coverage and will prove invaluable to students of politics as well as to activists and the general reader Emancipation Day Natasha L. Henry-Dixon, 2010-07-12 When the passage of the Abolition of Slavery Act effective August 1 1834 ushered in the end of slavery throughout the British Empire people of the African descent celebrated their newfound freedom Now African American fugitive slaves free black immigrants and the few remaining enslaved Africans could live unfettered live in Canada a reality worthy of celebration This new well researched book provides insight into the creation development and evolution of a distinct African Canadian tradition through descriptive historical accounts and appealing images The social cultural political and educational practices of Emancipation Day festivities across Canada are explored with emphasis on Ontario Nova Scotia New Brunswick Quebec and British Columbia Emancipation is not only a word in the dictionary but an action to liberate one's destiny This outstanding book is superb in the interpretation of the power of freedom in one's heart and mind moving from 1834 to present Dr Henry Bishop Black Cultural Centre Dartmouth Nova Scotia
