Tall Buildings and the City Kheir Al-Kodmany, 2020-07-09 The chaotic proliferation of skyscrapers in many cities around the world is contributing to a decline in placemaking This book examines the role of skyscrapers and open spaces in promoting placemaking in the city of Chicago Chicago's skyscrapers tell an epic story of transformative architectural design innovative engineering solutions and bold entrepreneurial spirit The city's public plazas and open spaces attract visitors breathe life and bring balance into the cityscape Using locational data from social media platforms including Twitter Facebook and Instagram along with imagery from Google Earth fieldwork direct observations in depth surveys and the combined insights from architectural and urban design literature this study reveals the roles that socio spatial clusters of skyscrapers public spaces architecture and artwork play to enhance placemaking in Chicago The study illustrates how Chicago as the birthplace of skyscrapers remains a leading city in tall building integration and innovation Focusing on some of the finest urban places in America including the Chicago River the Magnificent Mile and the Chicago Loop the book offers meaningful architectural and urban design lessons that are transferable to emerging skyscraper cities around the globe

Legendary Homes of Lake Minnetonka Bette Jones Hammel, 2010 Hundreds of cottages and cabins mansions and houses line the shores of Lake Minnetonka one of Minnesota's most beautiful lakes and site of the state's most coveted properties Legendary Homes of Lake Minnetonka invites readers into thirty of these dwellings built by families like the Washburns Pillsburys and Daytons Evocative words and stunning color photographs guide readers through these beautifully designed and furnished homes Portrayed in elegant detail are interiors of renovated Victorian cottages and rustic cabins as well as those of houses designed by modernist masters like William Lescaze and Philip Johnson Photographer Karen Melvin takes viewers through the front door showing living rooms furnished with Mies van der Rohe couches and chairs designed by Frank Lloyd Wright and walls adorned with works by Robert Motherwell and Damien Hirst Author Bette Jones Hammel relates the homes histories of ownership and details the many renovations they have seen over time renovations that have attempted to retain the homes character and extend their lifespan For the best views of the exteriors of these homes you would need a boat To see the interiors you would need an invitation Hammel and Melvin have chosen the most interesting houses both architecturally and historically and painstakingly scouted out the best vantage points both inside and out to provide a personal tour of these spectacular homes

Placemaking with Tall Buildings Kheir Al-Kodmany, 2025-12-16 Placemaking with Tall Buildings confronts a pressing challenge in contemporary urbanism the rapid proliferation and unprecedented heights of tall buildings have strained the spatial social and cultural frameworks essential to successful placemaking The book reconceptualizes tall buildings as civic agents that deliver spatial legibility cultural significance and vibrant social interaction by embedding placemaking at the heart of vertical development Drawing on global case studies rigorous field research and foundational urban theories it articulates ten pragmatic planning and design principles that explain how holistic context sensitive design can weave vertical structures into their surrounding fabric fostering inclusivity environmental responsiveness and a distinct sense of place Richly illustrated with carefully curated photographs this work equips architects planners policymakers and students with a comprehensive toolkit to transform tall buildings from isolated monuments into dynamic human centered environments By showcasing strategies for interior and exterior placemaking adaptive programming and community engagement it offers a roadmap for ensuring that vertical development not only shapes skylines but also enriches urban life at every spatial scale

Grant Park Dennis H Cremin, 2013-05-28 On November 4 2008 when president elect Barack Obama celebrated his victory with more than one hundred thousand supporters in Chicago everyone knew where to meet Long considered the showplace and cultural center of Chicago Grant Park has been the site of tragedy and tension as well as success and joy In addition to serving as the staging grounds for Abraham Lincoln s funeral procession through the city the park has been the setting for civil rights protests and the 1968 Democratic National Convention demonstrations The faithful attended the open air mass of Pope John Paul II in Grant Park and fans gathered there to cheer for the Chicago Bulls after their championship wins The long park overlooking the beautiful waters of Lake Michigan has played an active part in Chicago and U S history In 1836 only three years after Chicago was founded Chicagoans set aside the first narrow shoreline as public ground and declared it forever open clear and free Chicago historian and author Dennis H Cremin reveals that despite such intent the transformation of Grant Park to the spectacular park it is more than 175 years later was a gradual process at first fraught with a lack of funding and organization and later challenged by erosion the railroads automobiles and a continued battle between original intent and conceptions of progress Throughout the book Cremin shows that while Grant Park s landscape and uses have changed throughout its rocky history the public ground continues to serve as a display case for the city and a calling card to visitors Amply illustrated with maps and images from throughout Chicago s history Grant Park shows readers how Chicago s front yard developed into one of the finest urban parks in the country today 2014 Illinois State Historical Society Book of the Year Political Economies of Landscape Change James L. Jr Wescoat, Douglas M. Johnston, 2007-12-05 Places of Power Political Economies of Landscape Change asks how politics and economics transform the landscapes we inhabit This volume explores the connections between political economy and landscape change through a series of conceptual essays and case studies In so doing it speaks to a broad readership of landscape architects geographers and related fields of social and environmental research The book consists of an introductory essay with nine chapters commissioned from leading geographers landscape architects political scientists and economists and a concluding essay on implications for future landscape inquiry and design The book is organized in three major sections Part one titled Landscapes of Struggle Possibility and Prosperity includes a chapter on new axioms for reading the landscape followed by two chapters that read processes of economic development and distress in mountain landscapes of the U S and South America Part Two on Political and Economic Driving Forces of Landscape Change includes two chapters each on political driving forces political constructs and institutions and economic driving forces environmental economics and global financial markets Part Three titled Integrative Landscape Change compares innovative rural landscape policies in Europe and the U S and draws implications for future landscape inquiry planning and design Writing About Architecture Alexandra Lange, 2012-02-29 Extraordinary architecture addresses so much more than mere practical considerations It inspires and provokes while creating a seamless experience of the physical world for its users It is the rare writer that can frame the discussion of a building in a way that allows the reader to see it with new eyes Writing About Architecture is a handbook on writing effectively and critically about buildings and cities Each chapter opens with a reprint of a significant essay written by a renowned architecture critic followed by a close reading and discussion of the writer s strategies Lange offers her own analysis using contemporary examples as well as a checklist of questions at the end of each chapter to help guide the writer This important addition to the Architecture Briefs series is based on the author s design writing courses at New York University and the School of Visual Arts Lange also writes a popular online column for Design Observer and has written for Dwell Metropolis New York magazine and The New York Times Writing About Architecture includes analysis of critical writings by Ada Louise Huxtable Lewis Mumford Herbert Muschamp Michael Sorkin Charles Moore Frederick Law Olmsted and Jane Jacobs Architects covered include Marcel Breuer Diller Scofidio Renfro Field Operations Norman Foster Frank Gehry Frederick Law Olmsted SOM Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright
