The Forms and Fictions of Victorian Art Instruction Kimberly J. Stern, 2025-09-25 The Victorian period gave rise to revelatory new approaches to art instruction A growing investment in standardized education the rise of exhibition culture and an expanding body of literature devoted to the teaching of art all contributed to very public and sometimes contentious debates about art pedagogy Surveying a range of instructional scenarios from the schoolroom to the Royal Academy The Forms and Fictions of Victorian Art Instruction reveals the creative and even radical methods nineteenth century writers brought to questions that inform educational debate to this day What is the role of art in the learning process Should art instruction provide students with practical skills or does art defy such instrumental concerns Above all is it possible for art instruction to impose structure on the learning process while also nurturing the creative autonomy art demands Through an interdisciplinary and deeply historical account of art instruction that incorporates fiction poetry art manuals and innovative hybrid genres this book contends that nineteenth century writers defended the educational value of art by abandoning expository writing in favor of highly experimental literary forms In this way The Forms and Fictions of Victorian Art Instruction supplies a new history of art teaching one that sheds light on the educational and cultural dilemmas we continue to face today

A Philosophy of the Art School Michael Newall, 2018-10-31 Winner of the American Society for Aesthetics 2019 Outstanding Monograph Prize Until now research on art schools has been largely occupied with the facts of particular schools and teachers This book presents a philosophical account of the underlying practices and ideas that have come to shape contemporary art school teaching in the UK US and Europe It analyses two models that hidden beneath the diversity of contemporary artist training have come to dominate art schools The first of these is essentially an old approach a training guided by the artistic values of a single artist teacher The second dates from the 1960s and is based around the group crit in which diverse voices contribute to an artist s development Understanding the underlying principles and possibilities of these two models which sit together in an uneasy tension gives new insights into the character of contemporary art school teaching demonstrating how art schools shape art and artists how they can be a potent engine of creativity in contemporary culture and how they contribute to artistic research A Philosophy of the Art School draws on first hand accounts of art school teaching and is deeply informed by disciplines ranging from art history and art theory to the philosophy of art education and creativity

Art Schools and Place Silvie Jacobi, 2020-06-15 Art education has a definite impact on artists sense of place and their spatial relations Exploring where and why artists choose to locate is the first step in describing an art scene ethnographically This research considers coming to and going through art school as a crucial inter subjective learning environment Artists learn not just to engage with place through spatial and relational practices but gain a sense of mobility and transnational flows in a globalized art world This book is the first time the art school has been studied this way in the nascent field of art geography blending the tool kits of human geography and urban studies This is timely against the backdrop of worldwide university closures of physical space and cost intensive fine art courses as a triumph of managerialism and business case over education This volume helps highlight how investment in this form of education has an important capacity for nurturing art scenes and feeding into the community at large
