Why We Make Art And Why It Is Taught:

Why We Make Art and why it is Taught Richard Hickman, 2010 What function or purpose does art satisfy in today's society Section one gives a general overview of the nature of art and its relationship to education In section two are psychological issues discussed including the nature of creativity and its associations with art Section three gives issues in art and learning The final section considers the notion of creating aesthetic significance as a fundamental human urge Review in Cultural trends 21 2012 2 Jun 175 177 "The Concept of the 'Master' in Art Education in Britain and Ireland, 1770 to the Present " Matthew C. Potter, 2017-07-05 A novel investigation into art pedagogy and constructions of national identities in Britain and Ireland this collection explores the student master relationship in case studies ranging chronologically from 1770 to 2013 and geographically over the national art schools of England Ireland Scotland and Wales Essays explore the manner in which the Old Masters were deployed in education fuelled the individual creativity of art teachers and students were used as a rhetorical tool for promoting cultural projects in the core and periphery of the British Isles and united as well as divided opinions in response to changing expectations in discourse on art and education Case studies examined in this book include the sophisticated tradition of academic inquiry of establishment figures like Joshua Reynolds and Frederic Leighton as well as examples of radical reform undertaken by key individuals in the history of art education such as Edward Poynter and William Coldstream The role of Modern Masters like William Orpen Augustus John Gwen John and Jeff Wall is also discussed along with the need for students and teachers to master the realm of art theory in their studio based learning environments and the ultimate pedagogical repercussions of postmodern assaults on the academic bastions of the Old Masters Teaching Artist Handbook, Volume One Nick Jaffe, Becca Barniskis, Barbara Hackett Cox, 2015-02-04 Originally published Chicago Columbia College Chicago Press 2013 The Routledge International Handbook of the Arts and Education Mike Fleming, Liora Bresler, John O'Toole, 2014-11-27 This International Handbook brings together leading writers on Arts in Education to provide a much needed authoritative guide to the main debates in the field and an informed account of contemporary developments in policy and practice Providing a detailed overview of key concepts and practical challenges the book combines theoretical insight with specific examples of innovative projects drawing on theoretical historical and empirical research perspectives to inform understanding The range of content highlights the breadth of the field addressing such issues as the importance of community arts and partnership as well as school education and providing insight into developments in multiple and connecting arts as well as traditional art forms Topics such as assessment creativity cultural diversity special needs the arts in early childhood adult education arts based research are all addressed by recognised authorities in each area The collection of chapters also serves to define the field of arts education recognising its diversity but highlighting the common elements that provide its identity The collection addresses generic issues common to all the arts while acknowledging differences and recognising the dangers of over generalisation It also includes specific chapters on each of the art forms visual art dance drama literature music media arts providing a cutting edge analysis of key contemporary issues in each subject Bringing together specially commissioned pieces by a range of international authors this Handbook will make an important contribution to the field of Arts Education Primary Teaching Catherine Carden,2018-11-24 When learning to teach practical experience in the classroom is as essential as learning from others and being able to reflect on your own learning and performance Equally important is the ability to critically evaluate learning and teaching This new extensive core text from Learning Matters tackles questions like What drives schools and what challenges them What can we learn from other countries Does curriculum really matter How do teachers manage behaviour How do I prove that my children are learning What does mastery really look like Discussing these and many more it comprehensively covers professional studies modules and goes beyond to support trainees on placements and in their learning on the course Learning features throughout have been designed to help students develop their understanding broaden their perspectives think more critically and apply theory to practice These include Case Studies to apply learning to real life school contexts Key Readings to encourage wider reading broaden perspectives and offer practical ideas for the classroom Key Theory features introduce and summarise big ideas theories and research Critical Questions direct reflection help students engage with what their reading and encourage critical responses Classroom Links highlight good practice provide practical ideas and show how to implement these in the classroom Assignment features offer helpful points to consider and practical advice for writing assignments on chapter topics which act as great starting points Discourse and Disjuncture between the Arts and Higher Education Jessica Hoffmann Davis,2016-07-04 This accessible and compelling collection of faculty reflections examines the tensions between the arts and academics and offers interdisciplinary alternatives for higher education With an eye to teacher training these artist scholars share insights models and personal experience that will engage and inspire educators in a range of post secondary settings The authors represent a variety of art forms perspectives and purposes for arts inclusive learning ranging from studio work to classroom teaching to urban settings in which the subject is equity and social justice From the struggles of an arts concentrator at an Ivy League college to the challenge of reconciling the dual identities as artists and arts educators the issues at hand are candid and compelling The examples of discourse ranging from the broad stage of arts advocacy to an individual course or program give testimony to the power and promise of the arts in higher education Observational Filmmaking for Education Nigel Meager,2019-02-21 This book places observational filmmaking in the context of the rapidly developing landscape of creativity and arts based research in education The author uses observational filmmaking as a lens to address debates surrounding video based and arts based research Utilising the work of Dewey and Deleuze as the theoretical underpinnings of the volume this is combined with numerous practical examples of observational filmmaking in schools The author argues that observational video camera and editing techniques combine careful observation with rigorous visual analysis they place sensory affectual and aesthetic qualities in experience centre stage While observational filmmaking in itself has enormous potential as a methodology for education research it may also become a fulcrum for children s learning Children record their experiences in the world around them as they look carefully with a video camera This pioneering yet practical book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of creativity learning and education research methods as well as constituting a useful guide for teachers arts practitioners and education policy makers
