Why Do Muslim Women Cover Their Head Amina:

Muslim Women and Misogyny Samia Rahman, 2024-06-27 Debunking lazy stereotypes a courageous exploration of Islamophobia patriarchy and identity What is it really like to be a Muslim woman in today's Britain The Politics of the Headscarf in the United States Bozena C. Welborne, Aubrey L. Westfall, Özge Çelik Russell, Sarah A. Tobin, 2018-05-15 Investigates the social and political effects of the practice of Muslim women wearing a headscarf or hijab Islam and the Americas Aisha Khan, 2017-01-10 This volume edited by Aisha Khan explores Muslims' lived experiences in the Western Hemisphere and the ways in which Islam has been codified in the New World by Muslim minority societies using disparate case studies from the Caribbean Suriname Brazil Mexico and others in the Atlantic World Feminism, Tradition and Change in Contemporary Islam Shehnaz Haqqani, 2024-10-17 The Islamic tradition has always been flexible changing over time and constantly adapting to the different societies Muslims find themselves in Few Muslims today would abide by the fatwa against the printing press under the Ottomans Moreover although Islamic law legislates for slavery and child marriage only a vanishing minority of Muslims consider these practices acceptable today and some will even argue that Islam never permitted them Yet some issues like the prohibition on female led prayer and female interfaith marriage seem curiously impervious to change Why is that Through a mixture of interviews with ordinary Muslims in Texas and critical analysis of contemporary and historical scholarship Shehnaz Haqqani demonstrates the gendered dimensions of change and negotiation in Islamic tradition She argues that a reliance on a mostly male scholarly consensus means that the tradition preserves male privilege at the expense of justice for Muslim women The Diaspora of the Comoros in France Katharina Fritsch, 2022-07-15 Based on an ethnographic study of mobilisations of the Comorian diaspora in Marseille during political and cultural events the book examines communitarianisation in relation to three thematic areas namely spaces cultural markets and local politics Drawing on Foucault's concept of the dispositif the author analyses mobilisations of postcolonial diaspora as part of a dispositif of communitarianisation that is a set of discourses practices institutions and subjectivations of diasporic community She argues that constructions of community are both shaped by and shape ethnicised biopolitics expressed by modes of governing diasporic groups along ethnicised divisions and a marking of ethnicised communities as the Other of the French Republic The performativity of a Comorian community brought into being through political cultural economic and customary practices also shows how Comorian communities govern themselves along ethnicised categories at the intersection with generation gender age classes locality and class Communitarianisation processes as part of ethnicised self governing reveal postcolonial power relations in France as well as practices of negotiation and contestation on the part of Comorian communities This book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of critical diaspora studies critical ethnography discourse and dispositif analysis postcolonial politics and the African diaspora American Muslim Women, Religious Authority, and Activism Juliane Hammer, 2012-08-24 Following the events of September 11 2001 American Muslims found themselves under unprecedented scrutiny Muslim communities in the United States suffered from negative representations of their religion but they also experienced increased interest in aspects of their faith and cultures They seized the opportunity to shape the intellectual contribution of American Muslims to contemporary Muslim thought as never before Muslim women in particular often assumed to be silenced oppressed members of their own communities challenged stereotypes through their writing seeking to express what it means to be a Muslim woman in America and carrying out intra Muslim debates about gender roles and women's participation in society Hammer looks at the work of significant female American Muslim writers scholars and activists using their writings as a lens for a larger discussion of Muslim intellectual production in America and beyond Centered on the controversial women led Friday prayer in March 2005 Hammer uses this event and its aftermath to address themes of faith community and public opinion Tracing the writings of American Muslim women since 1990 the author covers an extensive list of authors including Amina Wadud Leila Ahmed Asma Barlas Riffat Hassan Mohja Kahf Azizah al Hibri Asra Normani and Asma Gull Hasan Hammer deftly examines each author's writings demonstrating that the debates that concern American Muslim women are at the heart of modern Muslim debates worldwide While gender is the catalyst for Hammer's study her examination of these women's intellectual output touches on themes central to contemporary Islam authority tradition Islamic law justice and authenticity

Encyclopedia of American Women and Religion June Melby Benowitz, 2017-08-18 This two volume set examines women's contributions to religious and moral development in America covering individual women their faith related organizations and women's roles and experiences in the broader social and cultural contexts of their times This second edition of Encyclopedia of American Women and Religion provides updated and expanded information from historians and other scholars of religion covering new issues in religion to better describe and document women's roles within religious groups For instance the term evangelical feminism is one newly defined aspect of women's involvement in religious activism Changes are constantly occurring within the many religious faiths and denominations in America particularly as women strive to gain positions within religious hierarchies that previously were exclusive to men and rise within their denominations to become theologians church leaders and bishops The entries examine the roles that American women have played in mainstream religious denominations small religious sects and non traditional practices such as witchcraft as well as in groups that question religious beliefs including agnostics and atheists A section containing primary documents gives readers a firsthand look at matters of concern to religious women and their organizations Many of these documents are the writings of women who merit entries within the encyclopedia Readers will gain an awareness of women's contributions to religious culture in America from the colonial era to the present day and better understand the many challenges that women have faced to achieve success in their religion related endeavors

The Making of a Salafi Muslim Woman Anabel Inge, 2017 Salafism often called Wahhabism is widely seen as a fundamentalist interpretation of Islam that subjugates women yet growing numbers of young British women many of them converts or from less conservative Muslim backgrounds are actively embracing it With unprecedented access to Salafi women s groups in the UK Anabel Inge provides the first in depth account of their lives probing the reasons for their conversion and their subsequent dilemmas and difficulties
