Work Culture And Identity Social History Of Africa:

Work, Culture, and Identity Patrick Harries, 1994 Work Culture and Identity offers a compelling narrative of the day to day life of migrant laborers in Mozambique and South Africa     The Routledge History Handbook of Gender and the Urban Experience Deborah Simonton, 2017-02-03 Play thrills danger and excitement     The Development of Africa Olayinka Akanle, Jìmí Olálékan Adésinà, 2017-10-25 This volume analyses many of the real development challenges confronting the African continent presenting fresh and current objective examinations narratives interpretations and pathways to the continent s development It interrogates and answers established critical current and pragmatic problems confronting Africa today and provides workable pathways out of the development problems so that scholarship policy and practice will be positively impacted This volume adds great depth and extended breadth to the knowledge base on development of Africa It provides excellent resources for academics scholars student policy makers and all those interested in issues affecting Africa s development     General Labour History of Africa Stefano Bellucci, Andreas Eckert, 2019 The first comprehensive and authoritative history of work and labour in Africa a key text for all working on African Studies and Labour History worldwide

Doing Conceptual History in Africa Axel Fleisch, Rhiannon Stephens, 2018-02-21 Employing an innovative methodological toolkit Doing Conceptual History in Africa provides a refreshingly broad and interdisciplinary approach to African historical studies The studies assembled here focus on the complex role of language in Africa s historical development with a particular emphasis on pragmatics and semantics From precolonial dynamics of wealth and poverty to the conceptual foundations of nationalist movements each contribution strikes a balance between the local and the global engaging with a distinctively African intellectual tradition while analyzing the regional and global contexts in which categories like work marriage and land take shape     Explorations in African History Veit Arlt, Stepahnie Bishop, Pascal Schmid, 2015-07-01 This collection of essays documents the growth of African history as a discipline at the University of Basel since 2001 It thus pays tribute to fourteen years of research and teaching by Patrick Harries at the Department of History and the Centre for African Studies Basel The Festschrift covers a broad range of topics from mine labour to missionary endeavour and the production of knowledge reflecting some of his core research interests The contributions engage with Patrick Harries oeuvre with reference to the authors own scholarship or vice versa Some directly address his publications while others take his teaching correspondence remarks or intellectual life more broadly as a point of reference They all pay tribute to a brilliant and inspiring scholar a great teacher and a kind person     Rethinking Labour in Africa, Past and Present Lynn Schler, Louise Bethlehem, Galia Sabar, 2013-09-13 This book offers a broad range of perspectives on major transformations in the research of labor in Africa contexts over the last twenty years This is a groundbreaking work by social scientists and historians adopting innovative paradigms in the study of African laborers working classes and economies it moves away from stringent Marxist perspectives towards more localized and fluid conceptions of materiality and productivity Against the backdrop of increasing mobility of labor and capital the authors demonstrate the need for a simultaneous consideration of local national and transnational contexts The collection of essays provides multiple perspectives on how African workers have negotiated changes and exploited opportunities in increasingly globalized workplaces while at the same time confronting the impact of global capitalist expansion on local settings in Africa This book was previously published as a Special Issue of African Identities

African Modernities and Mobilities Nkwi, Walter Gam, 2015-05-10 In this book Walter Gam Nkwi documents the complexities and nuances embedded in African modernities and mobilities which have been overlooked in historical discourses in Africa and Cameroon Using an ethnographic historical approach and drawing on the intricacies of what it has meant to be and belong in Kom an ethnic community in the Northwest Region of Cameroon since 1800 he explores the discourses and practices of kfaang as central to any understanding of mobility and modernity in Kom Cameroon and Africa at large The book unveils the emic understanding of modernity through the history and ethnography of kfaang and its technologies and illustrates how these terminologies were conceived and perceived by the Kom people in their social and physical mobilities It documents and analyzes the historical processes involved in bringing about and making kfaang a defining feature of everyday life in Kom and among Kom subjects

The Oxford Handbook of Commodity History Jonathan Curry-Machado, Jean Stubbs, William Gervase Clarence-Smith, Jelmier Vos, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Commodity History features contributions from scholars involved in the field's development across a range of countries and linguistic regions Each of the handbook's thirty-one chapters focuses on an important theme within commodity history essential approaches global histories modes of production people and land environmental impact consumption and new methodologies

Intellectual Decolonisation George Hull, 2024-10-18 This book puts contemporary calls for decolonisation in context Featuring an interdisciplinary team of scholars from around the world the book explores and critically assesses the diverse theoretical visions which inform calls for decolonisation of the mind today Contemporary calls to decolonise focus less on politico economic relations between states more on culture and ideas Sometimes museums are the target sometimes universities or academic disciplines sometimes entire legal systems Commentators and activists speak out for others against intellectual decolonisation decolonisation of the mind But what is the colonisation which intellectual decolonisation undoes Under what circumstances can inculcation or acceptance of ideas constitute colonialism As this book demonstrates advocates of intellectual decolonisation give very different indeed incompatible answers to these questions Critically examining conceptualisations of decolonisation spanning a century and four continents the book explores what is at stake in the choice between these theoretical alternatives Some see the aim of decolonisation as truth via the removal of distorting effects of power and bias Others troublingly subordinate truth and knowledge to ethnic or regional identity potentially paving the way for culturally authoritarian politics Intellectual Decolonisation Critical Perspectives is an indispensable resource for teachers students and scholars seeking to deepen their understanding of debates about decolonisation of the mind Individual chapters will interest researchers of the new right wing ethnonationalist political ideologies emerging in Europe Asia and Africa Originally published as a special issue of Social Dynamics this book is also a guide for anyone wondering what decolonisation is all about
