Working And Mothering In Asia Images Ideologies And Identities:

Working and Mothering in Asia Theresa W. Devasahayam, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2007 Large numbers of women in Asia engage in paid work in many cases outside the home Some of them simply need to support their families Others particularly educated women hope to develop rewarding careers Many of these women also continue to shoulder the home and family responsibilities that social and cultural norms define as their primary concern In an effort to balance the conflicting demands of these roles women in various Asian societies are negotiating contesting and reconfiguring motherhood Back cover The Globalization of Motherhood Wendy Chavkin, Jane Maree Maher, 2010-09-13 Brings together research from the Global North and the Global South to illuminate how contemporary motherhood is changed by the processes of globalization

Gender, Emotions and Labour Markets - Asian and Western Perspectives Ann Brooks, Theresa Devasahayam, 2010-12-14 The concept of emotional labour has largely emerged from the analysis of organizations in the West However little has been written about the issue of what defines emotional labour and how it is configured in different cultural contexts This book addresses this gap in the literature and considers how and in what ways emotional labour characterises formal and informal work environments in Southeast Asia Family Ambiguity and Domestic Violence in Asia Maznah Mohamad, Saskia Wieringa, 2013 Domestic violence in Asia is explored in this analysis through questions of family ambiguity and the relationship between concept law and strategy Comparative experiences in the Asian context enable an examination of the effectiveness of family regulations and laws in diverse national cultural and religious settings Key questions relate to the limits and relevance of the human rights discourse in resolving family conflicts the extent to which power and control in intimate relationships can actually be regulated by a set of inanimate homogeneous and uniform policies and legislations and how the state relates to the family as an ambiguous unit given state rules of governance that perpetuate unequal gender relations Carefully considering the many components of domestic violence such as state intervention versus the private domain and differences in legislation across Asia the book offers new theoretical insights to the conceptualization of the family culture and law and provides reasoned new perspectives on the effectiveness or inadequacy of present policies and enforcement strategies against domestic violence in Asia Asian Migrations Tony Fielding, 2015-07-16 This textbook describes and explains the complex reality of contemporary internal and international migrations in East Asia Taking an interdisciplinary approach Tony Fielding combines theoretical debate and detailed empirical analysis to provide students with an understanding of the causes and consequences of the many types of contemporary migration flows in the region Key features of Asian Migrations Comprehensive coverage of all forms of migration including labour migration student migration marriage migration displacement and human trafficking Text boxes containing key concepts and theories More than 30 maps and diagrams Equal attention devoted to broad structures e g political economy and individual agency e g migration behaviours Emphasis on the conceptual and empirical connections between internal and international migrations Exploration of the policy implications of the trends and processes discussed Written by an experienced scholar and teacher of migration studies this is an essential text for courses on East Asian migrations and mobility and important reading for courses on international migration and Asian societies more generally
