Power and the Pulpit Gerald Hiestand, Joel Lawrence, 2025-10-22 The evangelical tradition places the sermon at the center of church life We build buildings around pulpits and preachers We champion gifted communicators We celebrate effective homiletical techniques But too often these emphases are not the result of deep theological convictions but of the church's adoption of modern visions of communication and success In our day preaching is easily unmoored from its biblical theological and historical anchors Too often it has become a tool of celebrity We have seen pulpits and preaching taken captive by political and pragmatic ideologies The teaching office of the church has sometimes been manipulated to secure and maintain human power The present condition of much preaching in our time compels us to ask What is our theology of preaching Is our vision of the sermon rooted in the miracle of God's word proclaimed or in the desire to entertain Is our preaching a function of a theology of glory or a theology of the cross Reflecting on such questions the essays in this volume seek to chart a path forward for word centered God glorifying preaching
