Christians have Crisis? UNDERSTANDING CRISIS AND THE AFTERMATH Judith Isaacs-Herrig, M.Ed QIDP, 2018-07-29 Of course Christians have crisis As human beings we are surrounded by temptation we all make mistakes and we all suffer with trials in our lives Unfortunately there are well intended Christians who attempt to minister to those suffering or in crisis without realizing how their words of wisdom could actually be counterproductive and potentially harmful This book is a resource for ministry leaders parents teachers and caregivers regarding mental illness chronic pain abortion abuse and addictions It also covers marital and family issues There are facts included throughout the book to reveal the prevalence of each topic and listed resources to increase knowledge in those areas Scripture is included throughout the book to provide solid Christian counsel through each topic If someone came up to you today to reveal they are considering suicide or that they are addicted to porn or prescribed drugs would you know what to say to them What if someone wants to talk to you because they believe their spouse is having an affair or a mother believes her child is being molested or bullied or their adult child is being abused by their spouse Would you know how to advise them Are your words subjective Are they productive Are your words factual and scriptural As a church we need to teach that Christ is a loving and forgiving God We need to have compassion for the misunderstood As a church we need to be knowledgeable of current fads common problems in societies and families so we know how to respond to crises appropriately As a church we need to encourage a safe environment for those in need We need to minister to people with open minds and open hearts And we need to know when it is time to reach out for professional help Backwards Beauty Jessie

Minassian,2016 If ten girls were asked to describe the perfect girl they would likely rattle off an eerily similar list of qualities from hair skin and weight to a cute button nose That s a problem because God has given girls a desire to be desirable If girls think that they will be most wanted if they fit a one size fits all image of perfection they will continually chase that proverbial carrot their entire lives Backwards Beauty examines ten cultural lies young women listen to regarding beauty to help them unpack how they re looking at themselves through the wrong lens The tips to feel ugly range from compare yourself to every other girl to eat junk and diet diet diet Reading a book by Jessie Minassian is like sitting down with a friend and talking about the hard things in life Girls will be able to find freedom and hope in the midst of a culture that idolizes beauty Your
