The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo, 2015 Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely

Forgiveness and Justice Bryan Maier, 2019-03-21 Bringing practicality back to the work of forgiveness for counselors and pastors Much work in both academic and clinical counseling has focused on forgiveness and what precisely it means We now know forgiveness offers both physical and psychological benefits Yet despite all this exploration most Christians are far from having a clear consistent theologically informed definition Bryan Maier wants this conceptual ambiguity to end especially for the pastor or counselor sitting across from a hurting person seeking immediate practical help The Christian counselor needs to be able to walk the client through the question Can forgiveness coexist with justice To this end Maier examines current popular models of forgiveness considering where they merge and diverge and what merits each type of forgiveness has He then delves directly into Scripture to discover the original model of God's forgiveness to humankind From there he builds a new construct of human forgiveness with practical guidance to help those in counseling understand the concept theologically In doing so he demonstrates that our understanding that forgiveness leads to healing is inverted being whole leads to true forgiveness not the other way around Forgiveness and Justice is extremely useful for any practitioner needing to form a useful theologically sound understanding of forgiveness for those who come for help
