Understanding Carson McCullers Understanding Carson McCullers:

Understanding Carson McCullers Virginia Spencer Carr, 2005 Carson McCullers was deemed the find of the decade when she appeared on the literary scene at the age of twenty three and is best remembered for her celebrated novels The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter and The Member of the Wedding This book provides a balanced introductory study of her major fiction and shows her as more than a lesbian novelist The Lonely Hunter Virginia Spencer Carr, 2003 The Lonely Hunter is widely accepted as the standard biography of Carson McCullers Author of such landmarks of modern American fiction as Reflections in a Golden Eye and The Ballad of the Sad Caf Carson McCullers was the enfant terrible of the literary world of the 1940s and 1950s Gifted but tormented vulnerable but exploitative McCullers led a life that had all the elements and more of a tragic novel From McCullers s birth in Columbus Georgia in 1917 to her death in upstate New York in 1967 The Lonely Hunter thoroughly covers every significant event in and aspect of the writer s life her rise as a young literary sensation her emotional artistic and sexual eccentricities and entanglements her debilitating illnesses her travels in America and Europe and the provenance of her works from their earliest drafts through their book stage and film versions To research her subject Virginia Spencer Carr visited all of the important places in McCullers s life read virtually everything written by or about her and interviewed hundreds of McCullers s relatives friends and enemies The result is an enduring distinguished portrait of a brilliant but deeply troubled writer Understanding the Short Fiction of Carson McCullers Alison

Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2020 Understanding the Short Fiction of Carson McCullers uses diverse critical techniques to identify how McCullers s short fiction engages with the modern world and contemporary audiences While McCullers s longer work has received significant critical attention her short fiction has not received the same treatment This collection adds to analyses of McCullers s better known stories as well as considers those that have received little or no critical attention McCullers s writing maintains lasting appeal because it captures both the joy and sadness of humanity especially the meaning we draw from connections with others and the pain of isolation when we find it difficult to cultivate these relationships in modern culture While critical assessment of McCullers s work has more often focused on her concern with loneliness and belonging this collection depicts an author who was deeply invested in the social and political state of the world Her short fiction includes interrogations of class based racial and ableist prejudice disconcerting portrayals of the social and political anxiety surrounding the Second World War satirical eviscerations of some of the most oppressive social norms of the mid twentieth century and bold suggestions that lesbian desire queer relationships and female autonomy have a valid place in American culture Through her depictions of differently abled sexually nonconforming characters as well as characters of various races and classes her short fiction redefines notions of belonging in the modern social context The chapters within this collection provide new scholarly avenues to McCullers and will compel readers to rethink their own responses to McCullers s shorter works Book jacket A Study Guide for Carson McCullers's "A Tree. John Huston as Adaptor Douglas McFarland,Wesley King,2017-01-28 John Huston as Adaptor makes the case that adaptation is the salient element in Huston s identity as a filmmaker and that his early and deep attraction to the experience of reading informed his approach to film adaptation Thirty four of Huston s thirty seven films were adaptations of literary texts and they stand as serious interpretations of literary works that could only be made by an astute reader of literature Indeed Huston asserted that a film director should be above all else a reader and that reading itself should be the intellectual and emotional basis for filmmaking The seventeen essays in this volume not only address Huston as an adaptor but also offer an approach to adaptation studies that has been largely overlooked How an adaptor reads the works to which he is drawn and how his literary interpretations can be brought to the screen without relegating film to a subservient role are some of the issues addressed by the contributors An introductory chapter identifies Huston as the quintessential Hollywood adaptor and argues that his skill at adaptation is the mark of his authorial signature The chapters that follow focus on fifteen of Huston s most important films including The Maltese Falcon 1941 The Treasure of the Sierra Madre 1948 The African Queen 1951 The Night of the Iguana 1964 Under the Volcano 1984 and The Dead 1987 and are divided into three areas aesthetics and textuality history and social context and theory and psychoanalysis By offering a more comprehensive account of the centrality of adaptation to Huston s films John Huston as Adaptor offers a greater understanding of Huston as a filmmaker

American Women Writers, 1900-1945 Laurie Champion,2000-09-30 Women writers have been traditionally excluded from literary canons and not until recently have scholars begun to rediscover or discover for the first time neglected women writers and their works This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 American women authors who wrote between 1900 and 1945 Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses a particular author s biography her major works and themes and the critical response to her writings The entries close with extensive primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume concludes with a list of works for further reading The period surveyed by this reference is rich and diverse Modernism and the Harlem Renaissance two major artistic movements occurred between 1900 and 1945 and the entries included here demonstrate the significant contributions women made to these movements The volume as a whole strives to reflect the diversity of American culture and includes entries for African American Native American Mexican

American and Chinese American women It includes well known writers such as Willa Cather and Eudora Welty along with more neglected ones such as Anita Scott Coleman and Sui Sin Far Understanding Reynolds Price James A.
