Cancer Terry Moore,2018-01-24 Our world was turned upside down Two months ago my brother Bob was diagnosed with follicular lymphoma a type of B cell lymphoma and bone cancer Needless to say it turned our world upside down When we received his diagnosis it literally knocked the wind out of me Prior to that day I did not even imagine that it could be cancer causing the lumps in his neck I optimistically thought it could be benign fatty tumors but sadly I was way off base on this one To watch my brother cry was heart wrenching Not only am I his sister I am also his appointment coordinator his support system and his cheerleader He was scared and so was I Even all my years in nursing did not prepare me for handling the devastating effects that cancer can bring Through these dark days it was time for me to stay positive Its time to stay courageous and help him to do the same To help stay focused I immediately started to journal my brothers journey dealing with cancer I have always used journaling as my way of coping with lifes ups and downs After a while I recognized that through journaling and jotting down our experiences could perhaps help other cancer patients and their families It is my way of taking a negative and turning it into a positive An Attempt To Understand The Years Of Plague M.A Amru,2025-05-20
