Women The State And War A Comparative Perspective On Citizenship And Nationalism:

Women, the State, and War Joyce P. Kaufman, Kristen P. Williams, 2007-01-01 Women the State and War looks at the intersection of gender citizenship and nationalism marriage intermarriage and how states gender that relationship and the ways in which women are used as symbols to reinforce or further nationalistic goals Women have long struggled with issues of citizenship identity and the challenge of being recognized as equal members of the community Governments use feminine imagery e g mother country to create a national identity while simultaneously minimizing the role that women play as productive contributors to the society Authors Joyce P Kaufman and Kristen P Williams examine the relationship of government and women in four different countries the United States Israel the former Yugoslavia and Northern Ireland In each case numerous similarities appear conflict plays a significant role in the definition of citizenship for women women s movements have worked in contradiction to the state and citizenship and marriage are gendered undertakings Women, Gender Equality, and Post-Conflict Transformation Joyce P. Kaufman, Kristen P. Williams, 2016-10-04 The end of formal hostilities in any given conflict provides an opportunity to transform society in order to secure a stable peace This book builds on the existing feminist international relations literature as well as lessons of past cases that reinforce the importance of including women in the post conflict transition process and are important to our general understanding of gender relations in the conflict and post conflict periods Post conflict transformation processes including disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR programs transitional justice mechanisms reconciliation measures and legal and political reforms which emerge after the formal hostilities end demonstrate that war and peace impact and are impacted by women and men differently By drawing on a strong theoretical framework and a number of cases this volume provides important insight into questions pertaining to the end of conflict and the challenges inherent in the post conflict transition period that are relevant to students and practitioners alike The ^AOxford Handbook of Gender, War, and the Western World since 1600 Karen Hagemann, Stefan Dudink, Sonya O. Rose, 2020-10-30 To date war history has focused predominantly on the efforts of and impact of war on male participants However this limited focus disregards the complexity of gendered experiences with war and the military The Oxford Handbook of Gender War and the Western World since 1600 investigates how conceptions of gender have contributed to the shaping of military culture examining the varied ideals and practices that have socially differentiated men and women s wartime experiences Covering the major periods in warfare since the seventeenth century The Handbook explores cultural representations of war and the interconnectedness of the military with civil society and its transformations Gender, Race, and Power Joyce P. Kaufman, Kristen P. Williams, 2024-10-02 Kaufman and Williams present critical issues in international relations through an intersectional approach that examines race gender class ethnicity and power to arrive at better explanations for such core IR issues as war and peace security human rights development and international political economy and the global environment Their approach builds on early calls amongst feminist IR theorists

implores Where are the women It is only fairly recently that students of IR have broadened the approach to the field to incorporate the dimensions of race ethnicity and class as well as gender Kaufman and Williams help guide readers exploring questions like How does gender matter for understanding war and peace How does race matter Where are the men What is intersectionality in IR How does an intersectional approach change or broaden our understanding of international relations

Bridging Divides Through Gender-Just Citizenship Linda Eitrem Holmgren, 2025-02-24 This open access book explores how to build a gender just peace in which women's political citizenship is foregrounded through a case study of Northern Ireland It addresses the role that civil society can play in peacebuilding and in political life in deeply divided transitional societies It specifically focuses on women's groups and as such studies what grassroots peacebuilding across an ethnic divide can look like in practice Further it analyses what it means to build a gender equal citizenship based on the lived expertise and experiences of women's activism political participation and interethnic cooperation during and after conflict Based on material collected through interviews participant observation and official documents the book explores the potential for gender just political citizenship but also the risk of backlash in terms of women's rights during a transition from armed conflict to peace Essential reading for students and researchers in Political Science Gender Studies Peace and Conflict Studies and Transitional Justice

Gender, Nation and Women Politicians in Serbia and Kosovo Gordana Subotić, 2022-03-30 This book examines the ways women politicians in Serbia and Kosovo have imagined constructed and politicised national identity and gender while engaging with politics in the context of the democratisation process The first book to focus on the work of women inside political structures it draws on participant observation and interview material to answer the question of how women in positions of power and influence deal with their national identity and gender in societies deeply divided along ethnic lines Based on close studies of the work of a small number of women from different ethnic backgrounds the author offers comparative analyses of the ways in which women politicians of different ethnicities respond to similar events in their everyday work An original political ethnography that considers engagement of women in formal politics this volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in political structures and political participation particularly as these relate to questions of gender nation and ethnicity

Feminism and Migration Glenda Tibe Bonifacio, 2012-02-09 Feminism and Migration Cross Cultural Engagements is a rich original and diverse collection on the intersections of feminism and migration in western and non western contexts This book explores the question does migration empower women Through wide ranging topics on theorizing feminism in migration contesting identities and agency resistance and social justice and religion for change well known and emerging scholars provide in depth analysis of how social cultural political and economic forces shape new modalities and perspectives among women upon migration It highlights the centrality of the various meanings and interpretations of feminism's in the lives of immigrant and migrant women in Australia Belgium Brazil Eastern Europe France Greece Japan Italy Mexico Morocco Papua New Guinea Spain and the United States The well researched chapters explore the ways in which feminism and migration across cultures relate to women s experiences in host societies as women wives mothers exiles nuns and workers and the avenues of interactions for change Cross cultural engagements point to the convergence and even disjunctures between im migrant and non immigrant women that remain unrecognized in contemporary mainstream discourses on migration and feminism Sexuality after War Rape Nena Močnik,2017-09-01 This book examines the potential impact of rape survivors traumatic experiences in post conflict zones With specific attention given to the experiences of women who were sexually abused during the breakup of the former Yugoslavia it addresses the sexuality of survivors which has so far been inadequately researched and challenges the stereotypical and victimized images and narrations that have so far prevailed in academic and public discourse about women survivors while exploring the effects of those narratives on the political social and economic status of the survivors themselves Methodologically innovative the book questions the processes of re victimization that can follow fieldwork with survivors and introduces the theoretical and practical foundations of applied drama and community theater as a research approach in this field revealing its potential as a means of expressing a range of ethnographic anthropological and case study research findings Based on the narratives of advocates scholars and different social stakeholders together with new drama based methodologies employed directly with survivors Sexuality after War Rape From Narrative to Embodied Research offers a sensitive and ethically responsible research approach to contesting assumptions about the sexualities of survivors of sexual violence and revealing the emancipatory potential of testifying This book will appeal to scholars of sociology and gender studies victimology and sexuality Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century Amy E. Randall,2021-12-16 Focusing on events in Rwanda Armenia and the former Yugoslavia as well as the Holocaust Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century investigates how historically and culturally specific ideas led to genocidal sexual violence Expert contributors also consider how these ideas in conjunction with issues relating to femininity masculinity and understandings of gendered identities contributed to perpetrators tools and strategies for ethnic cleansing and genocide The 2nd edition features Five brand new chapters which explore imperialism race gender and genocide the Cambodian genocide memory and intergenerational transmission of Holocaust trauma and genocide gender and memory in the Armenian case An extended and enhanced introduction which makes use of recent scholarship on gender and violence Historiographical and bibliographical updates throughout Key primary document excerpt from the 1948 UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide Updated and revised in its second edition Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century is the authoritative study on the complex gender dimensions of ethnic cleansing and genocide in the 20th century Peacebuilding through Women's Community Development Amanda E. Donahoe,2017-06-22 This book explores the gendered history of the Troubles the rise of the Northern Ireland Women s Coalition and the role of community development as a new field in Northern Ireland Nearly twenty years after the Belfast or Good Friday Agreement that ended the Troubles in Northern Ireland tensions persist and society is still deeply divided The book addresses the ways in which women navigate these tensions and contribute to peacebuilding through community development described dismissively by many in Northern Ireland as the work of wee women Women navigate this gendered space to build peace strategically through Wee Women s Work The author focuses in particular on the Women s Sector and draws on feminist theory to examine the distinction between formal and informal politics
