Wonders To Behold The Visionary Art Of Myrtice West:

Wonders to Behold Myrtice West, 1999 Examines West's artistic achievement by featuring an essay on each of her Revelations paintings The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Carol Crown, Cheryl Rivers, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-06-03 Folk art is one of the American South's most significant areas of creative achievement and this comprehensive yet accessible reference details that achievement from the sixteenth century through the present This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture explores the many forms of aesthetic expression that have characterized southern folk art including the work of self-taught artists as well as the South's complex relationship to national patterns of folk art collecting Fifty-two thematic essays examine subjects ranging from colonial portraiture Moravian material culture and southern folk pottery to the South's rich quilt-making traditions memory painting and African American vernacular art and 211 topical essays include profiles of major folk and self-taught artists in the region Thinking and Seeing with Women in Revelation Lynn R. Huber, 2013-09-12 Lynn R. Huber argues that the visionary aspect of Revelation with its use of metaphorical thinking and language is the crux of the text's persuasive power Emerging from a context that employs imagery to promote imperial mythologies Revelation draws upon a long tradition of using feminine imagery as a tool of persuasion It does so even while shaping a community identity in contrast to the dominant culture and in exclusive relationship with the Lamb By drawing upon the work of medieval and modern visionaries Huber answers a call to examine the way real readers engage with biblical texts Revealing how Revelation continues to persuade audiences through appeals to the visual and provocative imagery she offers a new sense of how the text metaphorical language simultaneously limits and invites new meaning unfurling a range of interpretations The Colorful Apocalypse Greg Bottoms, 2011-05-26 The Reverend Howard Finster was twenty feet tall suspended in darkness Or so he appeared in the documentary film that introduced a teenaged Greg Bottoms to the renowned outsider artist whose death would help inspire him fourteen years later to travel the country Beginning in Georgia with a trip to Finster's famous Paradise Gardens his journey Teaching the Bible Mark Roncace, Patrick Gray, 2012-11-05 While books on pedagogy in a theoretical mode have proliferated in recent years there have been few that offer practical specific ideas for teaching particular biblical texts To address this need Teaching the Bible a collection of ideas and activities written by dozens of innovative college and seminary professors outlines effective classroom strategies with a focus on active learning for the new teacher and veteran professor alike It includes everything from ways to incorporate film literature art and music to classroom writing assignments and exercises for groups and individuals The book assumes an academic approach to the Bible but represents a wide range of methodological theological and ideological perspectives This volume is an indispensable resource for anyone who teaches classes on the Bible Teaching the Bible through Popular Culture and the Arts Mark Roncace, Patrick Gray, 2012-11-01 This resource enables biblical studies instructors to facilitate engaging classroom experiences by drawing on the arts and popular culture It offers brief overviews of hundreds of easily accessible examples of art film literature music and other media and outlines strategies for incorporating them effectively and concisely in the classroom Although designed primarily for college and seminary courses on the Bible the ideas can easily be adapted for classes such as Theology and Literature or Religion and Art as well as for nonacademic settings This compilation is an invaluable resource for anyone who teaches the Bible Sacred and Profane Carol Crown, Charles Russell, 2007 A sustained critical assessment of southern folk art and self taught art and artists Coming Home! Carol Crown, 2004 A fascinating examination of the Bible's influence on seventy three self taught artists and 122 works of art Folk Art, 2004 We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 2022 March 26 2023
