The Cinema of Rithy Panh Leslie Barnes, Joseph Mai, 2021-07-16 Born in 1964 Cambodian filmmaker Rithy Panh grew up in the midst of the Khmer Rouge s genocidal reign of terror which claimed the lives of many of his relatives After escaping to France where he attended film school he returned to his homeland in the late 1980s and began work on the documentaries and fiction films that have made him Cambodia's most celebrated living director. The fourteen essays in The Cinema of Rithy Panh explore the filmmaker's unique aesthetic sensibility, examining the dynamic and sensuous images through which he suggests that everything has a soul. They consider how Panh represents Cambodia's traumatic past, combining forms of individual and collective remembrance and the implications of this past for Cambodia's transition into a global present. Covering documentary and feature films, including his literary adaptations of Marguerite Duras and Kenzaburo Oe, they examine how Panh's attention to local context leads to a deep understanding of such major themes in global cinema as justice, imperialism, diaspora, gender, and labor. Offering fresh takes on masterworks like The Missing Picture and S-21, while also shining a light on the director's lesser-known films, The Cinema of Rithy Panh will give readers a new appreciation for the boundless creativity and ethical sensitivity of one of Southeast Asia's cinematic visionaries.

Her legacy continues to influence modern culture more than 40 years after her death. This new collection of essays interprets Baker's life in the context of modernism, feminism, race, gender, and sexuality. The contributors focus on various aspects of her life and career, including her performances and public reception, civil rights efforts, the architecture of her unbuilt house, and her modern-day afterlife.*

Museum Movies

Haidee Wasson, 2005-05-27 In 1935 the foundation of the Film Library of the Museum of Modern Art in New York marked the transformation of the film medium from a passing amusement to an enduring art form. Haidee Wasson maps the work of the MoMA film library as it pioneered the preservation of film, promoted the concept of art cinema. Book Review Index, 2003 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation. Rethinking Media Change David Thorburn, Henry Jenkins, 2004-09-17 The essays in Rethinking Media Change center on a variety of media forms at moments of disruption and cultural transformation. The editors' introduction sketches an aesthetics of media transition, patterns of development and social dispersion that operate across eras, media forms, and cultures. The book includes case studies of such earlier media as the phonograph, early cinema, and television. It also examines contemporary digital forms, exploring their promise and strangeness. A final section probes aspects of visual culture in such environments as the evolving museum, movie spectacles, and the virtual window. The contributors reject apocalyptic scenarios of media revolution, demonstrating instead that media transition is always a mix of tradition and innovation, an accretive process in which emerging and established systems interact, shift, and collude with one another.
