American Machinist, 1926 Antiques, 1926 The Dawn of Innovation Charles R. Morris, 2012-10-23 In the thirty years after the Civil War

the United States blew by Great Britain to become the greatest economic power in world history That is a well known period in history when titans like Andrew Carnegie John D Rockefeller and J P Morgan walked the earth But as Charles R Morris shows us the platform for that spectacular growth spurt was built in the first half of the century By the 1820s America was already the world s most productive manufacturer and the most intensely commercialized society in history The War of 1812 jumpstarted the great New England cotton mills the iron centers in Connecticut and Pennsylvania and the forges around the Great Lakes In the decade after the War the Midwest was opened by entrepreneurs In this beautifully illustrated book Morris paints a vivid panorama of a new nation buzzing with the work of creation He also points out the parallels and differences in the nineteenth century American British standoff and that between China and America today

Make it with Wood Edgar Randall Beard, 1983 The Astronomical Clock of Strasbourg Cathedral Günther Oestmann, 2020-04-20 Strasbourg Cathedral s astronomical clock is one of the most famous monuments to Time in the world No other clock has been described and appreciated so often and in such a myriad of ways There were three clocks built consecutively within the cathedral the earlier fourteenth century clock has left little trace a second clock was realized in 1570 1574 while the nineteenth century clock began as a proposal for repairs but was intended by its maker as a replacement clock This book gives a detailed outline of the artistic and technical components of the second clock much of which survives and it describes the astronomical indications and its underlying conceptual framework The author has discovered a hitherto disregarded contemporary statement that the clock displays four ways of determining the ascendant as described by Ptolemy He also shows that the Strasbourg clock is the result of a highly original reception of the architectural theory of Vitruvius and other mathematical and mechanical texts of Late Antiquity Revised and updated translation from the German edition Die Stra burger M nsteruhr Funktion und Bedeutung eines Kosmos Modells des 16 Jahrhunderts Published by GNT Verlag in 1993 See inside this book Magazine Antiques ,1926 Miracles and Machines Elizabeth King,W. David Todd,2023-08-15 An abundantly illustrated narrative that draws from the history of art science technology artificial intelligence psychology religion and conservation in telling the extraordinary story of a Renaissance robot that prays This volume tells the singular story of an uncanny rare object at the cusp of art and science a 450 year old automaton known as the monk The walking gesticulating figure of a friar in the collection of the Smithsonian Institution s National Museum of American History is among the earliest extant ancestors of the self propelled robot According to legend connected to the court of Philip II of Spain the monk represents a portrait of Diego de Alcal a humble Franciscan lay brother whose holy corpse was said to be agent to the miraculous cure of Spain s crown prince as he lay dying in 1562 In tracking the origins of the monk and its legend the authors visited archives libraries and museums across the United States and Europe probing the paradox of a mechanical object performing an apparently spiritual act They identified seven kindred automata from the same period which they argue form a paradigmatic class of walking prime movers unprecedented in their combination of visual and functional realism While most of the literature on automata focuses on the Enlightenment this enthralling narrative journeys back to the late Renaissance when clockwork machinery was entirely new foretelling the evolution of artificial life to come
