Workable Sisterhood The Political Journey Of Stigmatized Women With Hiv Or Aids:

Workable Sisterhood Michele Tracy Berger, 2010-07-28 Workable Sisterhood is an empirical look at sixteen HIV positive women who have a history of drug use conflict with the law or a history of working in the sex trade What makes their experience with the HIV AIDS virus and their political participation different from their counterparts of people with HIV Michele Tracy Berger argues that it is the influence of a phenomenon she labels intersectional stigma a complex process by which women of color already experiencing race class and gender oppression are also labeled judged and given inferior treatment because of their status as drug users sex workers and HIV positive women The work explores the barriers of stigma in relation to political participation and demonstrates how stigma can be effectively challenged and redirected The majority of the women in Berger's book are women of color in particular African Americans and Latinas The study elaborates the process by which these women have become conscious of their social position as HIV positive and politically active as activists advocates or helpers She builds a picture of community based political participation that challenges popular medical and scholarly representations of crack addicted prostitutes and HIV positive women as social problems or victims rather than as agents of social change Berger argues that the women's development of a political identity is directly related to a process called life reconstruction This process includes substance abuse treatment the recognition of gender as a salient factor in their lives and the use of nontraditional political resources

Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women's experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women's subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

Authoritarian Absorption Yan Long,2024-11-01 Authoritarian Absorption unveils the transformation of China's pandemic response system from 1978 to 2018 through its battle against HIV/AIDS. Chinese bureaucrats facing pressure from foreign agencies especially those of the US and UK and grassroots social movements developed ways to turn epidemics into opportunities for enhancing domestic control and international stature. Drawing on longitudinal ethnographic research Yan Long reveals how Western liberal interventions can simultaneously bolster public health institutions and reinforce authoritarian power a development pivotal to China's subsequent handling of COVID-19 and instrumental in advancing the rights of groups like gay men.

Broadening the Contours in the Study of Black Politics Aaron Wildavsky,2017-07-05 Broadening the Contours in the Study of Black Politics volume 17 of the National Political Science Review (NPSR) is divided thematically into two books available separately or as a set. The first concentrates on the institutional aspects of Black politics. The second book addresses various dimensions of social capital that constitute the fundamental building blocks of Black politics. Each contains peer-reviewed articles a symposium section and book reviews as well as other featured sections. Together these books build on the previous NPSR volume Black Women in Politics. The symposium in Volume 17 1 examines the struggle of Black women both in the political science discipline and in getting their work published. In the symposium section of Volume 17 2 members of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists carry on a revealing conversation about the dilemmas of professional life for Black women in political science. The set also contains a section called Trends which offers data to use as starting points for discussions in teaching on professional panels or in the mass media regarding the new versions of the Voting Rights Act after the Shelby County v Holder decision of 2013. Both volumes 17 1 and 17 2 contain rigorously vetted articles on significant themes in the study of Black politics. This set represents the most recent offering in the distinguished National Political Science Review series.
