Organic Revolutionary Gershuny Grace Gershuny, 2020-03-01 An influential founding member of the American organic agriculture movement and a long time organic farmer Grace Gershuny gives us one of the most comprehensive and deeply personal accounts of adventures in that movement ever written A principal author of the USDA s first proposed National Organic rule Gershuny left the National Organic Program staff just before the final rule was published The complicated story of that movement for nationwide organic regulations which consumed Gershuny s life for five years is interwoven here with her own personal timeline before during and after the arduous federal process This memoir explores how the organic revolution became rooted well before the US federal government cared to notice Gershuny asks important ongoing questions about the organic movement that still aren t receiving enough attention such as whether organic standards should be consumer or farmer driven and if organic agriculture architecture will be able to maintain its principles as it becomes mainstream Entertaining yet urgent Organic Revolutionary thoughtfully details the personal political and practical struggles that ensued in the heroic effort to push the organic movement beyond farmers markets and into supermarkets Book Review Digest ,2002 Little Sister Patricia Walsh Chadwick,2019-04-02 Imagine an eighteen year old American girl who has never read a newspaper watched television or made a phone call An eighteen year old girl who has never danced and this in the 1960s It is in Cambridge Massachusetts where Leonard Feeney a controversial soon to be excommunicated Catholic priest has founded a religious community called the Slaves of the Immaculate Heart of Mary The Center s members many of them educated at Harvard and Radcliffe surrender all earthly possessions and aspects of their life including their children to him Patricia Chadwick was one of those children and Little Sister is her account of growing up in the Feeney sect Separated from her parents and forbidden to speak to them Patricia bristles against the community s draconian rules yearning for another life When at seventeen she is banished from the Center her home she faces the world alone without skills family or money but empowered with faith and a fierce determination to succeed on her own which she does rising eventually to the upper echelons of the world of finance and investing A tale of resilience and grace Little Sister chronicles in riveting prose a surreal childhood and does so without rancor or self pity The Price of Freedom Sergeant Don Reeves (Retired),2011-10-14 Most of us take for granted the freedoms this country has been blessed with but freedom is not free This is my story a simple southern boy from Arkansas who at the age of eleven wanted to be a marine I found myself in the Vietnam War at the age of eighteen that pushed me to the limit physically and psychologically The images I carry in my mind are still horrifying at times and for many years I blamed myself for my fallen comrades Feelings of anger hate guilt and bitterness were trapped within my soul and ate at me a little each day until there was no more of me left Miraculously I was redeemed when I re found my faith in God and the soul mate who helped me through it all I truly hope you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed writing it Semper Fi America ,1938-04 The Use of Words in Context John W. Black,Cleavonne S. Stratton,Alan C. Nichols,Marian Ausherman Chavez,2013-06-29 The Speech Situation is a term worn with age in the teaching of public speaking in America That it is comprised of occasion speaker and topic is a gross oversimplification It also includes challenge anxiety emotion fear responsibility faults of memory and instants of pride Out of the circumstances arise an increase in heart rate a change in blood pressure an abnormal pattern of breathing a noticeable build up in perspiration and an ongoing evaluation For students this may be merely a grade or perhaps a series of evaluative remarks possibly addressed both to the speaker and the other participants the audience It may entail a replaying of a record of the speech indeed a videotape Most important is the lasting impression that remains with all of the participants What of the vocabulary of the speaker under the circumstances of the speech situation This speaker in the major portions of this work we may say this young man has spent time seeking an appropriate topic He has outlined a composition around a central idea or thesis He has marshaled evidence details He has framed an opening paragraph He has been admonished not to give an essay but to strive for audience contact interpersonal communication He makes his audible approach through his vocabulary and accompanying phonology Under the tension the speaker repeats he adds meaningless vocalizations in periods that might logically be pauses There are slips of the tongue At worst failing he withdraws to await another day
