Your House Is On Fire Your Children All Gone A Novel:

Your House Is on Fire, Your Children All Gone Stefan Kiesbye, 2012-09-25 Shirley Jackson meets The Twilight Zone in this riveting novel of supernatural horror for readers who loved Ransom Riggs Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children A village on the Devil's Moor a place untouched by time and shrouded in superstition There is the grand manor house whose occupants despise the villagers the small pub whose regulars talk of revenants the old mill no one dares to mention This is where four young friends come of age in an atmosphere thick with fear and suspicion Their innocent games soon bring them face to face with the village's darkest secrets in this eerily dispassionate astonishingly assured novel infused with the spirit of the Brothers Grimm and evocative of Stephen King's classic short story Children of the Corn and the films The White Ribbon by Michael Haneke and Village of the Damned by Wolf Rilla

LONG LONG AGO in ancient times there lived a King and Queen And for the blessing of a child their longing sore had been At last a little daughter fair to their great joy was given And to the christening feast they made they bade the Fairies seven The Fairies seven who loved the land that they the child might bless Yet one old Fairy they left out in pure forgetfulness And at the feast the dishes fair were of the reddest gold But when the Fairy came not one for her so bad and old Angry was she because her place and dish had been forgot And angry things she muttered long and kept her anger hot Until the Fairy godmothers their gifts and wishes gave She waited long to spoil the gifts and her revenge to have One gave the Princess goodness and one gave her beauty rare One gave her sweetest singing voice one gracious mien and air One skill in dancing one all cleverness and then the crone Came forth and muttered angry still and good gift gave she none But said that in the future years the Princess young should die By pricking of a spindle point ah woeful prophecy But now a kind young Fairy who had waited to the last Stepped forth and said No she shall sleep till a hundred years are past And then she shall be wakened by a King s son truth I tell And he will take her for his wife and all will yet be well In vain in all her father s Court the spinning wheel s forbid In vain in all the country side the spindles sharp are hid For in a lonely turret high and up a winding stair There lives an ancient woman who still turns her wheel with care The Princess found her out one day and tried to learn to spin Alas the spindle pricked her hand the charm had entered in And down she falls in death like sleep they lay her on her bed And all around her sink to rest a palace of the dead A hundred years pass still they sleep and all around the place A wood of thorns has risen up no path a man can trace At last a King s son in the hunt asked how long it had stood And what old towers were those he saw above the ancient wood
