The Manœuvring Mother. By the Author of “the History of a Flirt” [Lady Charlotte Susan Maria Campbell, Afterwards Bury]. ,1842 The Reluctant Flirt Jennifer Probst,2025-07-15 From New York Times bestselling author Jennifer Probst discover The Reluctant Flirt Just one night After discovering her husband s affair Sierra Lourde flees to New York City for a little damage control and a lot of wine A tipsy night in a bar with a charming stranger seems like the perfect way to forget her troubles No names no promises just one night to escape reality and regain her confidence The next morning mortified by her vulnerability she flees without looking back But who needs closure right But one night changes everything Sierra has reinvented herself as the proud owner of Flirt a trendy boutique in the Outer Banks Life is good until Kane Masterson the man she left behind walks back into town And of course he s now the developer whose big new project threatens to bulldoze her beloved shop Kane needs this deal to save his career but Sierra s not about to let him demolish her hard won success With sparks flying sarcastic jabs turning into lingering looks and a family wedding forcing them into close quarters Sierra and Kane find themselves tangled in a battle of wills and hearts But now he has to choose reclaim his career or risk everything for a second chance with the one woman he can t forget The Visioning Susan Glaspell,1911 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process Though we have made best efforts the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide Marriage Vows and Racial Choices Jessica Vasquez-Tokos,2017-02-14 Choosing whom to marry involves more than emotion as racial politics cultural mores and local demographics all shape romantic choices In Marriage Vows and Racial Choices sociologist Jessica Vasquez Tokos explores the decisions of Latinos who marry either within or outside of their racial and ethnic groups Drawing from in depth interviews with nearly 50 couples she examines their marital choices and how these unions influence their identities as Americans Vasquez Tokos finds that their experiences in childhood adolescence and young adulthood shape their perceptions of race which in turn influence their romantic expectations Most Latinos marry other Latinos but those who intermarry tend to marry whites She finds that some Latina women who had domineering fathers assumed that most Latino men shared this trait and gravitated toward white men who differed from their fathers Other Latina respondents who married white men fused ideas of race and class and perceived whites as higher status and considered themselves to be marrying up Latinos who married non Latino minorities African Americans Asian Americans and Native Americans often sought out non white partners because they shared similar experiences of racial marginalization Latinos who married Latinos of a different national origin expressed a desire for shared cultural commonalities with their partners but like those who married whites often associated their own national origin groups with oppressive gender roles Vasquez Tokos also investigates how racial and cultural identities are maintained or altered for the respondents children

Within Latino white marriages biculturalism in contrast with Latinos adopting a white American identity is likely to emerge. For instance, white women who married Latino men often embraced aspects of Latino culture and passed it along to their children. Yet for these children, upholding Latino cultural ties depended on their proximity to other Latinos, particularly extended family members. Both location and family relationships shape how parents and children from interracial families understand themselves culturally. As interracial marriages become more common, Marriage Vows and Racial Choices shows how race, gender, and class influence our marital choices and personal lives.

Adopting the Track of Term: An Emotional Symphony within The Trouble With Flirting

In a global eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous connection, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony created by the published word often diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of The Trouble With Flirting a wonderful literary value overflowing with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this poignant evaluation, we will explore the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing style, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
