Wired For Joy A Revolutionary Method For Creating Happiness From Within:

Wired for Joy! Laurel Mellin, 2010-06-15 Can you imagine a world where drug companies throw bake sales to make ends meet A world without all the jaw clenching nail biting and stress induced melt downs Eighty percent of health problems today are due to the downstream effects of stress so learning to break free from stress could dramatically improve your mood your relationships your health and your life In Wired for Joy researcher and New York Times bestselling author Laurel Mellin presents a simple yet proven way to train your brain to move through stress and back to joy Her method has been called the missing link in health care as it focuses on rewiring the emotional brain the caldron of our stress rather than the thinking brain which has been the focus of most other stress busting methods Based on the cutting edge science of neuroplasticity Mellin outlines the five states of the emotional brain For each state she presents a specific tool that easily and quickly switches the brain back to a state of well being Once you know how to make that switch life becomes easier and stress symptoms depression anxiety overeating high blood pressure tend to fade Finally instead of focusing on the symptoms of stress we can change the wiring that triggers it and experience new sense of freedom in our lives The Wisdom of

Married to Bhutan Linda Leaming, 2011-04-01 Tucked away in the eastern end of the Himalayas lies Bhutan a tiny landlocked country bordering China India and Nepal One of the most remote places in the world Bhutan is rich in natural beauty exotic landscapes and ancient wisdom where people are genuinely happy with very few material possessions and the government embraces Gross National Happiness instead of Gross National Product As one of the few Americans to have lived in Bhutan Linda Leaming offers a rare glimpse at the peaceful mountain kingdom so many have only dreamed of For over ten years Leaming has lived and taught in the small town of Thimphu where there are fewer than 100 000 people and no traffic lights If enlightenment is possible anywhere she writes I think it is particularly possible here The Bhutanese way of life quieter slower and more tranquil can seem daunting to most Westerners consumed with time dates speed and efficiency In Bhutan people rarely check their e mail and take their time answering their telephones But as Leaming shows us a little patience over a cup of warm tea and friendly conversation can help soothe the most distressed mind and soul In this funny magical memoir Leaming takes us with her on her travels through South Asia sharing her experiences as she learns the language customs and religion folklore of a revered Tibetan holy man who gave blessings to the people by whacking them on the head with a big wooden phallus her unlikely romance with a Buddhist artist and her discoveries about the unexpected path to happiness and accidental enlightenment where true bliss resides Married to Bhutan is a reminder that following our dreams is the way to be truly happy
