With God All Things Are Possible Anne V., 2013-11-21 This story is about love and how we can confuse it with other things like lust and flesh I sometimes wonder if we had an inside bell and we do it's called the Holy Spirit Saying something and doing another is hypocrisy Learning to get up after you fall is called courage We make mistakes in life but we do not have to compound them Believe what people say and watch their actions Some people say things as a joke they mean it but don't have the courage to say it to your face

All Things Are Possible Dawn Marie Beutner, 2025-05 Saint Frances

Xavier Cabrini crossed oceans to spread the Gospel and serve the poor. She also wrote oceans of letters to her religious sisters as she travelled all over the globe. Frances suffered from health problems all her life. Despite her many limitations she bravely faced persecution, poverty and dangerous sea voyages to establish new schools and orphanages for her religious order, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. To keep in contact with her spiritual daughters throughout her many journeys, she constantly corresponded with her sisters. Mother Cabrini's letters have long been out of print in English and this selection of her correspondence introduces modern readers to Cabrini's many gifts. Through her letters we learn about her meetings with popes and bishops as well as her encounters with ordinary people in Argentina, England, France, Nicaragua, Spain and the United States. She vividly describes the sights and sounds she encountered during her travels to great cities and remote villages, including several experiences in which she came close to death. She demonstrates her business acumen, her innate leadership abilities and her perseverance during the trials of establishing a religious congregation. She shows her sensitivity to her sisters' needs as well as her willingness to confront them about their failings. But above all, Frances Cabrini was a saint. Through her letters we can become acquainted with a truly holy 20th century woman. Her writings display her spiritual depth, her personal love for the Lord and even her favorite saints. Her greatest desire in life was to be a missionary sister, a woman who spread the Good News of Jesus Christ all over the world. In this goal, she was wildly successful. She always attributed her accomplishments to God through the Scripture passage she quoted most often: "I can do all things in Him who strengthens me."
