Wolfgang Laib Olga M. Viso, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden (Washington, D.C.), 2000 Posthuman Spiritualities in Contemporary Performance Silvia Battista, 2018-06-19 This book provides an interpretative analysis of the notion of spirituality through the lens of contemporary performance and posthuman theories The book examines five performance artworks The Artist is Present 2010 by Marina Abramović The Deer Shelter Skyscape 2007 by James Turrell CAT 1998 by Ansuman Biswas Journey to the Lower World by Marcus Coates 2004 and the work with pollen by Wolfgang Laib Through the analysis of these works the notion of spirituality is grounded in materiality and embodiment allowing the conceptual juxtaposition of spirit and matter to introduce the paradoxical as the guiding thread of the narrative of the book Here the human is interrogated and negotiated with within a plurality of other living organisms intangible existences and micro and macrocosmic ecologies Silence meditation shamanic journeys reciprocal gazing restraint and contemplation are analyzed as technologies used to manipulate perception and adventure into the multilayered condition of matter The Spiritual Dynamic in Modern Art C. Spretnak, 2014-10-22 This book demonstrates that numerous prominent artists in every period of the modern era were expressing spiritual interests when they created celebrated works of art This magisterial overview insightfully reveals the centrality of an often denied and misunderstood element in the cultural history of modern art The Contingent Object of Contemporary Art Martha Buskirk, 2005-02-18 An exploration of transformations in the nature of the art object and artistic authorship in the last four decades In this book Martha Buskirk addresses the interesting fact that since the early 1960s almost anything can and has been called art Among other practices contemporary artists have employed mass produced elements impermanent materials and appropriated imagery have incorporated performance and video and have created works through instructions carried out by others Furthermore works of art that lack traditional signs of authenticity or permanence have been embraced by institutions long devoted to the original and the permanent Buskirk begins with questions of authorship raised by minimalists use of industrial materials and methods including competing claims of ownership and artistic authorship evident in conflicts over the right to fabricate artists works Examining recent examples of appropriation she finds precedents in pop art and the early twentieth century readymade and explores the intersection of contemporary artistic copying and the system of copyrights trademarks and brand names characteristic of other forms of commodity production She also investigates the ways that connections between work and context have transformed art and institutional conventions the impact of new materials on definitions of medium the role of the document as both primary and secondary object and the significance of conceptually oriented performance work for the intersection of photography and the human body in contemporary art Buskirk explores how artists active in the 1980s and 1990s have recombined strategies of the art of the 1960s and 1970s She also shows how the mechanisms through which art is presented shape not only readings of the work but the work itself She uses her discussion of the readymade and conceptual art to explore broader issues of authorship reproduction context and temporality
